franked on 3 in cases where the applications have been made in the public interests. The grounds urged by the S.G. of Phce appear to be purely personal. Please see however for no 27 Edcl. I N-5-N in which exemption was granted on similar grounds.

The applicant seems to have passed all the other tests required for the post of an accountant, and since there is a dearth of Telugu Clerks qualified for the post, the S.G. recommends him for exemption.

Submitted for orders whether, in the circumstances, the S.G.'s recommendation for the exemption may be supported in Judicial as a special case.
