Sanctioning the addition proposed to regulation 197 of the — with a view to defining the character and scope of the question paper in the optional language for the B.A. Degree examination.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 5th November 1915.
No.—6956.

I have the honour to request, by the direction of the Syndicate, that the Government will accord its sanction under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, to the following additions to regulation 197, to be inserted at the end of each of the sections headed (iv) Psychology, Ethics and Logic or a Language and (v) History and Economics:—

“In each language there shall be one paper of three hours' duration which shall contain questions on the subject matter of the set books, a critical knowledge of which will be required, and also passages from those books for translation into English and explanation, together with unseen passages for translation into English from the selected classical or foreign language, or original composition in the selected vernacular language.”

These additions to regulation 197, which were adopted by the Senate at its meeting held on 22nd October 1915, are intended to define the character and scope of the question paper in “a Language” which is now optional for candidates taking the B.A. Degree examination in Groups (iv) and (v) of the Degree courses.

Order—No. 1249, Educational, dated 19th November 1915.

Under section 25, sub-section (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Government sanction the additions to regulation 197 of the University Regulations proposed in the Registrar's letter read above.

After the alterations recommended in Regulation 197 II under II-B, and 209 II-B had been passed.

Mr. Mark Hunter moved that in regulation 197 at the end of each of the sections headed (IV) Psychology, Ethics and (V) History and Economics the following para be added:

"In each language there shall be one paper of three hours duration which shall contain questions on the subject matter of the set books, a critical knowledge of which will be required and also passages from those books for translation into English and explanation, together with unseen passages for translation into English from the selected classical or foreign language or original composition in the selected vernacular language".

Mr. Prenderghast of the Hyderabad Nizam College, suggested that the portion relating to unseen passages be dispensed with.

Mr. Rangaswamy Iyengar pointed out that the prescribed portion for Sanskrit study was voluminous and it would be inflicting a serious injury upon the students if they passed this resolution.

The motion was put to the meeting and carried by a large majority.

At this stage the meeting was adjourned. The Senate will reassemble to-day at 4-30 P.M. in order to get through the long agenda.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
