Station Madras, Dated the 14 th October 1915From (Name) The Hon. Mr. J.H. Stone, M.A. F.R.H.S.C.I.E(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
 /Through the Accountant General/
 Sir,

In their order No. 1116 Edl., dated 27th November 1913, Government sanctioned the establishment of a higher Elementary Training school with lower Elementary classes, at Madras, for a period of two years from 1st March 1914 with the following staff.

Headmaster	Rs. 75
1 Assistant	40
1 Assistant	30
1 Gymnastic Instructor	20
1 Peon	8

The school has been working since July 1914 and as the Headmaster joined the office of the Inspector of European and the peon on the 24th and Training Schools on the 23rd March 1914 to make preliminary arrangements for starting the school, the sanction accorded in G.O. quoted above will cease with the 22nd March 1916 in the case of the Headmaster and the 23rd in the case of the peon. In April last both the Inspector of European and Training Schools and the Inspector of Schools, 4th Circle reported that there was still a great demand for training in Madras - there being as many as 201 untrained teachers in the aided schools in the city - and proposed the admission of another batch of 20 Higher Elementary and 30 Lower Elementary students in the school from July 1916 and the strengthening of the staff for the purpose. The proposal was not entertained by Mr. Duncan in the absence of specific provision for the purpose in the current year's budget and the Inspector was therefore asked to renew his proposal later in the year for consideration in connection with the Budget estimate for 1916-17.

2. The Inspector of European and Training Schools now recommends the continuance of the higher Elementary Training School at Madras for another two years from March 1st, 1916 and the employment in it in addition to the existing staff of an Assistant on Rs.50, a Drawing Master on Rs.30 and a peon on Rs.8 per mensem. He states that the employment of a separate Assistant is absolutely necessary to meet the need ~~in~~ for a Telugu section in both the Higher and the Lower Elementary grades, as the existing arrangement under which the 11 Telugu students now under training in both the Higher and Lower Elementary grades are taught together for certain subjects is found to be very unsatisfactory, that a separate Drawing Master is necessary to ~~teach~~ teach the subject which is now taught by one of the Assistants and that the services of a second peon are absolutely necessary, since the only peon in the school has had to be sent out frequently to the Accountant General's office, office of the Inspector of Schools and on other errands. I am convinced of the need for the continuance of the school, but consider that the employment of two additional teachers viz., one Assistant on Rs.50 and a Drawing Master on Rs.30 is not quite necessary and that a Secondary grade teacher qualified to teach both Telugu and Drawing will serve the purpose, I have the honour accordingly to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the continuance of the school for another two years from 23rd March 1916 and for the employment of the following staff.

1	Headmaster	Rs.75
1	Assistant	50	(additional)
1	do	40
1	do	30
1	Gymnastic Instructor	20
2	Peons	at Rs.8	16 (1 additional)

3. Provision for the continuance of the existing staff has been made in the Budget estimate for 1916-17 already submitted to Government and I request that, if the proposal is approved, provision for the additional staff now proposed may be made in that budget. The cost on account of stipends and of any additional furniture that may be required will be met from the provision made for the purpose under schools - special-Training schools for masters.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

SUBJECT.

Continuance of the Temporary
Training School at Triplicane

Please see G.O. No 1116 Est of the 27th November 1913, in which the Govt sanctioned the establishment of a higher elementary training school at madras for two years from 1st March 1914 with the following staff:-

one headmaster	Rs 75
one assistant	Rs 40
one do.	Rs 30
one Gymnastic instructor	Rs 20
one peon	Rs 8

The Director now recommends for the continuance of the School for another period of two years from the 23rd March 1916, with an additional establishment of (1) one assistant on Rs 50

and (2) one peon on Rs 8.

the employment of a separate assistant is reported to be absolutely necessary to meet the need for a Telugu section in both the higher and the the Director of European and Training Schools appears to have recommended the employment of a separate drawing teacher besides the proposed additional telugu teacher. But the Director proposes to employ a single additional teacher who will be qualified to teach both telugu & drawing. But he fixes the pay of this teacher at Rs 50.

para 4 on p. 2 of G.O.

No. 116 dt 27.11.13

(M)

He stated in his previous letter that no drawing master was necessary as one of the two assistants (one on Rs 40 & the other on Rs 30) ^{separate} would possess the necessary technical qualification and capacity to impart instruction in ^{not clear that this arrangement is not feasible} free hand drawing. It is therefore for consideration whether it is necessary to pay a high rate (usually to find a man capable of teaching drawing &

whether the pay of the new telugu & drawing teacher may not be fixed at Rs 40 - the pay of the senior among the assistants already sanctioned.

G.O. 1034 dt 11.11.13 + 759 dt 16.8.13

When the School was originally started, it was proposed to employ a peon and a night watchman, but the Govt did not think the latter was necessary. The Director now proposes to employ an additional peon for the reason mentioned at the bottom of page 2 Cf. But in the Training School for masters at Coonoor, Avudapur etc only one peon has been sanctioned. It is therefore for consideration whether the Director may be informed that Govt see no sufficient reason reason for the entertainment of an additional person.

A draft order is submitted below which, if approved,
may be sent to Financial for acceptance.
