In submitting herewith a copy of letter of not sufficient to justify the entire discontinuance of his covered before the bond executed by him is cancelled.

To,

The Principal,

V.J. Technical Institute, Byculla.

Respected Sir,

I regret very much to inform that my guardian died recently leaving my properties in unsettled condition. I am the elder member of the family and there is none closely related to me to look after my household affairs and for management of my properties. I am a married man.

Hence I am forced to discontinue my study and at the same time I lose my scholarship. So I humbly request you to be good enough to remit me the deposit sum of Rs. 10/- (deposited as per rules of the institute) and to strike off my name from the Register.

Hoping to be favoured with your money order at an early date and oblige.

Yours obediently,
sd. T.S. Ramayya,
