(through the Accountant-General, Madras.)

Sir,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment for a period of one year from 1st July 1916 of an additional teacher on Rs.60 per mensem in the Government Secondary Training School, Rajahmundry.

The Principal reports that there is urgent demand for additional seats in the school, that out of 260 applicants he was not able to select more than 64 though great local pressure was brought upon the Headmaster to overcrowd the class, and that there is still a large number of candidates ready to undergo training and he suggests therefore that arrangements be made for the admission of a second batch of students into the school in July 1916 in addition to the usual batch that will be admitted next year and for the strengthening of the staff. // There seems to be still a large demand for secondary training at Rajahmundry and the Principal's proposal to train a second batch of students in July 1916 commends itself to me. But as the present staff of the school which consists of a Headmaster and a first Assistant both in the cadre of Sub-Assistant Inspectors, a drawing master on Rs.20 and a Gymnastic Instructor on Rs.15 will not be able to cope with the additional work, I consider that the employment of an additional teacher on Rs.60 for a year ~~eight months~~ from 1st July 1916 is necessary, this being the salary sanctioned for a similar temporary Assistant, whose employment in the Secondary Training School, Calicut was sanctioned in G.O.No. 720 Edl., dated 3rd July 1915. If the proposal meets with the approval of Government I request that the necessary provision for the charge Viz., (salary of the teacher Rs.480 at Rs.60 for 8 months and stipends -1920 at Rs.12 ~~per~~ for 20 students for 8 months) may be made in the Budget estimate for 1916-17.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Christians

for Director of Public Instruction.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Employment of a temporary teacher on Rs 60 per mensem in the Govt. Secondary Training School, Rajahmundry

From The D.P.I., no 244 of 8th October 1915

Register No. 3974 Sol

The D.P.I. appears to have made out a good case for the temporary employment of an additional teacher ^{on Rs 60 per mensem} for one year in the Govt. Secondary Training School, Rajahmundry. The additional cost involved is Rs. 2,400 for 1916-17 and Rs. 1,200 for 1917-18. The only question for consideration is whether in view of the present financial stringency it is desirable to incur ^{additional} expenditure of Rs. 2,400 in the ensuing year. For orders whether the D.P.I. may be requested to state whether he would press the proposal.

I think there is no doubt that the expenditure is urgently necessary, and that provision ought to be made in the budget.

The pay of the temporary appointment sanctioned for the Govt. secondary training school for masters at balicut was fixed at Rs 60 p.m. in order to secure the services of an experienced L.T. for the post-vide para 4 of D.P.'s letter on page 2 of G.O. 720 Edl. & 3.7.15. Apparently an experienced L.T. is to be appointed in the Rajahmundry School (present case) as well; if so, the pay of Rs 60 p.m. proposed may be accepted.

2. Provision of funds- 1915-16. There will be no extra cost.

1916-17 - Necessary provision will be made in the next year's budget.
