From (Name) The Hon. Mr. J. H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir,

With reference to G. O. No. 110 Educational dated 5th February 1915, I have the honour to report that in the opinion of the Text Book Committee all the books referred to therein are useful for teachers and school-libraries but not as school text books. The publications entitled "Indian Home and Indian Catechism of Home Nursing" would seem particularly likely to be useful in Girls' Schools. But I am not, however, prepared to recommend that any of the books should be prescribed for use in schools though no doubt they would be used in any school in connection with with which a first aid class was started.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. B. Thompson

For Director of Public Instruction.
