 The official Secretary to the Standing Industrial Committee, Secretariat, Bombay.

Sir,

In reply to your letter received here on the 18th November 1915, enquiring what official organization exists in this Presidency for dealing with Industrial questions

I am directed to state that there is a separate Department of Industries with a Director at its head working directly -- under the Government. The Director deals with all questions relating to industrial development and also supervises the pumping and boring operations in connection with lift ~~water~~ irrigation. In the industrial section he undertakes experiments in the improvement of existing industries or in the introduction of new ones and is also in charge of industrial education. The staff employed for industrial experiments is at present only on a temporary basis.
 For industrial education the employment of an Inspector of Industrial schools to assist the Director has been sanctioned.

There are at present two Government technical institutions in the Presidency Viz., the Madura Technical Institute under a separate superintendent and the Madras Leather Trade school, ~~though a few more~~ ^{others} are under contemplation. The posts of ~~the~~ Dyeing Expert and ~~the~~ Weaving Assistant are attached to the former and ~~that~~ ^{the} of Leather Expert to the latter. Two peripatetic parties have been organized on a temporary basis to demonstrate to the people improved methods of weaving.

A bureau of industrial information for the collection ^{and} dissemination of information relating to -- industrial matters is also being -- developed under the charge of the -- Director. No separate superior staff has yet been sanctioned for the bureau. I am to forward herewith a copy of the latest annual report of the Director, which shows the nature of the work
