65. With reference to the answer given to question 137 (2) asked by me at the meeting of the Council held on 20th November 1914, will the Government be pleased to consider the desirability of opening a training school at Guddalur for meeting the demands of South Arcot similar to those opened at Mangalore and Tanjore in view of the fact that the present supply of trained mistresses for South Arcot is utterly unequal to the demand.

In the report on Public Instruction for 1914-15 the D. P. S. has stated as follows:—

"The existing facilities for the training of caste mistresses not being considered sufficient to meet the growing demand for qualified women teachers, the conversion of some of the large and important Govt. girls' schools into training schools for mistresses is being urged and I intend re-submitting the question of selecting the seats of such schools and formulating the necessary proposals to the Conference of Inspectresses which it is proposed to convene in December next."

2 It is now premature to say whether the Govt. girls' school at Buddalore would be one of the ~~for~~ institutions proposed for conversion into a training school. Even if the Conference of Inspectresses recommends the addition of a training section to the Buddalore school it is very doubtful whether, in view of the present financial situation, Govt. will be prepared to ~~give effect to~~ such a recommendation immediately.

3 The following draft

detail answer is submitted for approval
 "The question of opening
 "additional training schools for misters
 "will be ^{examined} ~~considered~~ by the conference
 "of Inspectresses which the D.P.I. proposes "to convene next month. ^{Their decision will} ~~be awaited~~
 "be awaited before the matter is further considered."
~~and it is not to be decided by the conference~~
~~that the question of opening~~
~~schools for misters will be decided~~

H.E. the Governor.
 I do not think it desirable to emphasize or exalt in this way the authority of this Conference, which is simply a meeting of Inspectresses whom the D.P.I. wishes to consult on points which he chooses to submit to them; they are not the responsible authority in the decisions ultimately arrived at; but advisors.

The answer may be

Yes: so far as financial resources permit.
