The idea of summoning a conference has been approved by the Govt: and the Director has been requested to submit ~~substantive~~ nomination for the appointment of members thereof. It cannot be definitely said just now when the conference will be summoned. The Director hoped in the first instance to assemble the conference this cold weather but as the local authorities have to be consulted on some of the points for discussion the Director had been asked to state whether, if the date of the conference is fixed for the end of ^{February} ~~January~~ or the beginning of March that would give him sufficient time for the desired consultation.

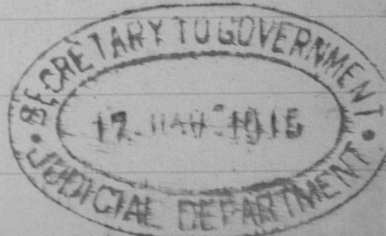

It is therefore for consideration whether the answer may not be

"The Govt: hopes to do so by about March next" summon the Committee upon the close of the cold weather"
