The Superintendent of Stationary

To,

M A D R A S.

The Chief Secretary

to the Government of Madras,

Humbly sheweth,

That your honour's humble memorialist belongs to a highly respectable family which has been enjoying the full confidence of Government for years past. He is a grandson of late Mir Muhammad Yousuf Sahib Bahadur, the first Musalman Presidency Magistrate of the Madras City, on the paternal side and a grandson of Hussain Dost Khan Bahadur, late Jaghirdar of Avalkonda and a lenial descendant of late Nawab Chanda Sahib of Arcot, on the maternal side. At present he has a good many relations of his occupying responsible positions in the Government Service. My uncle Khan Bahadur, Mahomed Azizuddin Hussain Sahib is the present Collector of South Arcot. My brother-in-law Mahomed Fazlullah Sahib Bahadur is Deputy Collector, Polavaram. Your honour's humble memorialist has passed the Government Lower Secondary Examination held in December 1903, and has prosecuted his studies up to the pre-matriculation standard, but owing to adverse circumstances, he was unable to continue further & had to seek employment for himself and the protection of his family from his 20th year and has been working in various capacities in different offices, as for instance, he has worked as (1) A Postal clerk from 9-4-1906 to 1-4-07, (2) a temporary Dy: Ranger from 8-7-07 to 16-11-07, (3) a temporary Unit clerk in the Survey Department from 6-7-09 to 7-12-09, (4) an Ag: clerk in the Boards Office from 17-1-10 to 24-3-10, (5) a temporary Gumastah in the Revenue Settlement Department from 1-7-10 to 16-3-11, (6) as an Ag: clerk in the Revenue Department for some months in the year 1912. Circumstances have taken <sup>in</sup> turn that he is now a temporary packer @ 0-12-0 a working day for the last nine months, in the Stationary Office. As to his character and capacity, <sup>a</sup> he believes that his kind superiors will testify as proof of his past work. Your honour's humble memorialist prays that the benevolent Government will be pleased to exempt him from the Examination Rules to enable him to pass the Special Tests and better his prospects in a Department of Government. He is aged about 29 years and it is your honour's humble memorialist's earnest desire to serve faithfully - the remaining years of his life and believes that the benevolent Government will extend a patronizing hand to one in such a helpless condition as your honour's humble memorialist.

For which act of kindness and charity, your honour's humble memorialist will ever pray.

Your honour's humble memorialist.

Exemption from Examination Rules

(8873) From the Supt. of Staty, No. R.O.C. 2237,
Gent, of 11.12.14.

A.S.

For order as to whether

The recommendation of the Supt. of stationery ~~may~~ be supported in this dept. and the case transferred to Educational for disposal. The applicant has been in service in the years 1906, 1907, 1909, 1910, 1911 & 1912 and now he is a clerk in the stationery office.

There is no information as to why no recommendation for exemption from the examination rules was made prior to his employment in the stationery office.

Mr. Cowie submitted a similar application in his capacity as Paymaster, Comatic Stipends, and it is dealt with in the linked file. This one is as vague as the other.

2. In the present case also the appointment which the applicant wants is not specified. Nor is any information given as to the circumstances under which his nominee lost his former footings in the Govt. Service. In the absence of information as to the candidate's antecedents, it is doubtful whether the Govt. will be justified in granting the exemption applied for. There is <sup>also</sup> another point of importance to be considered <sup>(through)</sup> the power of sanctioning exemption rests with Govt., they never interfere with the distribution of subordinate appointments which rests with the heads of departments. Unless <sup>(therefore)</sup> a head of a department is prepared to employ the applicant, there is hardly any use in the Govt. sanctioning the exemption. ~~It will merely create hopes which will be difficult for him to realize.~~ It is therefore submitted that Mr. Cowie may be requested to specify the appointment which his nominee wants and to submit the application through the head of the department which he wishes to enter - Cf. para. 11 of the C. Memorial Rule.

ORDER.

No. 161 My dated 15.2.1915.

Mi.

Mr Sardar Hussain will be permanently exempted from the provisions of art. 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment as a clerk in the office of the Supt. of Stationery on a salary not exceeding Rs 30 p-m.

2. As no special tests qualifications are required for his appointment as a clerk in that office, the question of his exemption from the special tests does not arise.
