The qualification for the St Municipality are mentioned on pages 80 and 81 of G.O. 202 Pub of the 12th 26 1913. It will be observed therefrom that, Precise-writing test is an initial qualification for the post. The High Court have, under rule 5 (3) of the Public Service Notification for reasons of their own—as the appointments of Dt Munip rests with them - exempted Mr Ravi Varma from passing this test for a period of one year. The Dt Judge is recommending the permanent exemption of the Dt Munip from fully qualifying himself by passing the test does not ^{give} show any grounds for this exceptional action on the part of the Govt. He also does not state whether any attempt has been made by Mr Ravi Varma to pass the test. The High Court do not express their opinion on the question. It is for orders whether under these circumstances the recommendation of the Dt Judge will be supported in judicial. Attention is invited to the note in The High Ct. recently asked that the power to exempt should be delegated to them: this was refused. They now put in an application entirely innocent of reasons. On this point alone they must be asked to state them.

2. The Shanmugam has already been given assistance & he ought, for his own sake & for the preservation of equal discipline, to take the exam.

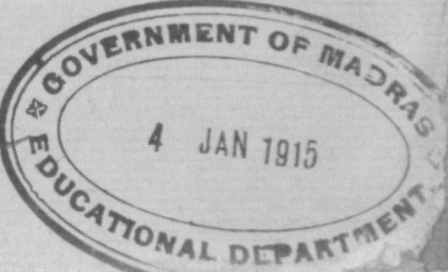

I would ask the H.C. for the grounds on which the exemption is recommended by the D. Govt. & add that previous to this case is not one in which the Govt. would be inclined, in the absence of cogent reasons, to grant concession.

SUBJECT:—

Dear Mr. Rajagopalachari,

In reply to your letter No.3869-1, Educational, dated 8th January 1915, regarding the exemption from passing the Précis Test of M.R.Ry Ravi Varma Raja, acting District Munsiff of Tirupatur, and stating that in the absence of cogent reasons the Government would not be inclined to grant the concession, I am directed to state that at the suggestion of Government his case has been treated as a somewhat special one. The District Munsiff is a Tamburan of Cochin and in a demi-official letter, No.164-3 dated 11th March 1913, Sir Harold Stuart wrote to Sir Arnold White enquiring whether the High Court was willing to exempt the -- Tamburan who at that time had not passed the B.L Examination from the Rules and give him the post of District Munsiff. Sir Harold Stuart's letter indicated that Government would be glad to give men like the Tamburan some encouragement when they sought employment in the Public Service. The Chief Justice was not in favour of making a special rule in his case, but later the Tamburan passed the B.L. Examination and has been appointed a District Munsiff. Government apparently would have liked to see the Tamburan appointed District Munsiff even although he had not passed the B.L. Examination; and in these circumstances it appears to the Honourable the Judges that the Précis Writing^{Test}, which is perhaps not of great importance for a District -- Munsiff, need not be insisted on in this case. I have explained this demi-officially as it appears -- preferable to do so in this form.

Yours sincerely,

Chacki

The question whether the exemption asked for may be granted is one for consideration in the Judicial Dept. in the first instance. The previous papers bearing on the case also appear to have been obtained by that department from Political and removed when sending the file to the Judicial Dept. may therefore be requested to consider the case and say whether it agrees to the exemption.

I do not think there are sufficient grounds for an exemption. It is a good thing for a munsif to be able to write concerning and any man of average intelligence should pass this pneis test without difficulty.
If we ~~are~~ exempted the Tampuran and were asked in the Legth Council today why we had done so I should find it difficult to give a satisfactory answer.

Mr. Macbay has misrepresented the intentions of the letter I wrote to the

Dear Sir John Wallis,

- With reference to the correspondence ending with Mackay's d.o. of the 26th January last,
- regarding the exemption from the Press-writing test of Mr Ravi Varma Raja, Agt. Munsif of Tirupattur, I am directed to say that the Govt. do not think that there are sufficient grounds for an exemption, ^(over exemption) ~~that~~ ^{as} it is a good thing ^{for a Munsif} to be able to write concisely and ~~that~~ ⁱⁿ any manner of average intelligence should pass the test without difficulty. ^{if the Govt. exempt} ~~that~~ ^{men to}
