GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 11th February 1915.
No.—Ref. on Cur. 741.

I have the honour to submit herewith a copy of the letter from the Principal, Presidency College, Madras, R. C. No. 53/15, dated 29th January 1915, with its enclosure, dated 26th January 1915, regarding the offer made by M.R.Ry. B. B. Gadgil, Loni (G.I.P. Railway) of a $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Government Promissory Note for rupees one thousand for the award of a prize in the College. I would recommend that the offer to create an endowment may be accepted as there is no other prize awarded in the College for excellence in the same subjects and that the Accountant-General may be authorized to receive the Government Promissory Note.

2. On receipt of orders from Government I shall obtain and submit the necessary applications and draft notifications for vesting the fund in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and for settling a scheme for the administration of the trust.

ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from the Principal, Presidency College.
To—the Director of Public Instruction.
Dated—the 29th January 1915.
No.—R.C. 53.

I have the honour to submit a letter from B. B. Gadgil, Esq., offering to endow a prize at this College, called the "Gangadhar Balwant Rao Gadgil Prize" in memory of his brother G. B. B. Gadgil, a former student of this College, and to recommend that the endowment be accepted.

SUB-ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from M.R.Ry. B. B. Gadgil.
To—the Principal, Presidency College.
Dated—Loni, the 26th January 1915.

I beg to state that it is our desire to found a prize in the Presidency College in the name of my late brother, Mr. Gangadhar Balwant Rao Gadgil, who was a student of that College and whose career was unfortunately cut short by his sudden death in Scotland.

We intend to give a $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Government Promissory Note for one thousand rupees for the purpose.

The conditions that we would like to impose are the following :—

- (1) That the prize be called the "Gangadhar Balwant Rao Gadgil Prize."
- (2) That the prize (either in the shape of money or books) of the value of the interest realised be awarded annually to any student of the Senior Intermediate class of the Presidency College who having passed the Intermediate Examination of the University of Madras in the First Class, obtains the highest number of marks in the Group of Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics as judged by the marks obtained by the candidates in the Intermediate Examination of the University of Madras.

I hope that the Government will see it fit to meet our wishes and by accepting the donation lay us under great obligation.

As I am leaving for England shortly I have asked my cousin, Mr. H. G. Gharpurey, I.C.S., to do the needful in the matter on my behalf. Please therefore address further correspondence to him care of P.O. Dikshit, Esq., House Agent, Mahabaleshwar (Bombay Presidency).

Order—No. 179, Educational, dated 18th February 1915.

The Government accept with thanks the offer of M.R.Ry. B. B. Gadgil, Loni, to endow a prize tenable at the Presidency College, Madras.

2. The Accountant-General will be authorized to receive the Government securities offered.

3. The applications and the draft notifications referred to in the Director's letter will be awaited.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
