May it please Your Lordships,

I, Chintalapalli Krishnaiya, ---

Clerk, District and Sessions Court, Kurnool, most respectfully beg to submit the following for your Lordships' kind consideration:-

(1) I am a Matriculate with Hand-writing & Dictation --- Test. I joined Judicial Department in 1907 as a clerk in the District Court, Kurnool, and have since passed the following Special Tests and Government Technical Examinations:-

1. Civil Judicial Test. Vide Part I B Suppt. page 2 of 5/1/'15.
2. Translation, Higher (Telugu) Vide Part I B suppt. Page 2 dated 9-1-12
3. Shorthand, Intermediate. Vide Part I B Suppt Page 3 of 8/8/'11.
4. Type-writing, Elementary. Vide Part I B suppt. Page 2 dated 28-7-08

(2) J.W. Hughes Esq., I.C.S. District Judge granted me the necessary certificates to enable me to appear for the Bombay - Pleaders Examination. In 1912, P.C. Dutt Esq., Acting District Judge, Kurnool, recommended me to the High Court for an Additional Translator's post and I got it. I served in the High Court of Judicature at Madras as an Additional Translator for about eight months from September 1912. During that period H.D.C. Reilly Esq., I.C.S., the then Registrar, was pleased to endorse on my application to the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras that my work and conduct -- were satisfactory.

(3) The Tests I have so far completed qualify me for the posts of Translator, Head Clerk, Appeal Examiner, Short-hand writer & a Typist. And there is one Test more which I should complete before qualifying for the post of Sheristadar which is the Highest that I may aspire to; and that is the - Criminal Judicial Test (Lower Grade), for which Matriculates are not allowed to appear ordinarily.

(4) Considering my poor circumstances, which did not permit me to complete the F.A. Course which I began, I humbly beg to approach your Lordships with a request to get me permission to apply for Criminal Judicial Test (Lower Grade).

In this connection I humbly and respectfully beg to -- submit that there are several cases in which persons in the Government employ, who possess no higher educational qualifications than myself, have been given permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, in this District.

I beg to remain,
Your Lordships,
Your most obedient servant,
L. Krishniah
Clerk, District & Sessions Court.

Testimonials.

K u r n o o l,

Ash Wednesday 14th February 1909.

1) I recently appointed C. Krishnayya to be the 8th clerk of my court in July 1907 and he seems to have done well. He was on probation for one year and won his confirmation after full trial. He has passed Elementary Short Hand and Type-Writing. At present he is Assistant Record --- Keeper and must do his work well, for I have only had to name any record and it has been in my hands in about two minutes.

(Sd) S.G. Roberts,

Acting District & Sessions Judge.

27th January 1912.

2) Chintalapalli Krishnayya, 7th clerk District Court, Kurnool, has been known to me for some time. On some -- occasions I dictated Judgments to him in Civil cases and his knowledge in Short Hand enabled him to take down -- what I dictated quite correctly in Short Hand. He has -- passed the necessary Examinations and I have no doubt he will prove a capable Short-Hand Writer.

(Sd) N. Lakshmana Rao,

Subordinate Judge,

K u r n o o l.

3) An endorsement of the Registrar of the High Court on my application when forwarding it to the office of the -- Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras "Forwarded. The Applicant's work and conduct have been satisfactory.

Krishnaiah has passed only the matriculation examination and is therefore ineligible for appearing for Cml. Judl. Test.
lower grade, hence the present application.
It does not appear that the recommendation of the Dy. Judge, for exemption from Examination rules, is made in the public interest. It is for orders whether in these circumstances J. ud. will support the request. Attention is here invited to D's order on 15.5.13 of Rce 471 of 23.5.13.

There does not appear to be any case at all. Petitioner merely wants to invade a post reserved for men of better qualifications.
He is neither near the post yet if, when he is, there is an absolute dearth of men, he might be some ground for exemption.
