No. 204-A.

From

THE HON'BLE DIWAN BAHADUR
P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR AVARGAL, C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

Dated Fort St. George, the 23rd February 1915.

SIR,

I am directed to address the Government of India regarding the rate of daily allowance admissible to the Director of Industries in this Presidency.

2. In the Hon'ble Mr. Sharp's letter No. 1015, dated the 7th June 1913, the sanction of the Government of India was conveyed to the creation of a separate Department of Industries in this Presidency, with a Director at its head on a salary of Rs. 1,250—50—1,500. The new department was constituted with effect from the middle of April 1914, and in the absence of Mr. A. Chatterton, whose services have been lent to the Mysore Darbar, Mr. K. T. B. Tressler is acting as Director. The jurisdiction of this officer extends over the whole Presidency and his duties entail extensive touring at frequent intervals. While on tour, he is, as an officer of the first class, eligible only for an allowance of Rs. 5 per diem, the ordinary rate allowed to such officers. This allowance is, however, found inadequate. Other heads of departments, such as the Inspector-General of Registration, the Sanitary Commissioner, the Director of Survey and the Director of Land Records, who have to do similar touring and whose jurisdiction also extends over the whole Presidency, are granted an enhanced rate of daily allowance, viz., Rs. 7—8—0. The Governor in Council considers that the higher rate of Rs. 7—8—0 should be allowed to the Director of Industries also and I am to request that the sanction of the Government of India may be accorded to the proposal and that the necessary addition may be made to Appendix 25 to the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR,
Secretary to Government.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. Nos. 204, 204-A, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 23RD FEBRUARY 1915.

[SUBJECT.—Position of the Director of Industries.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 23rd December 1914, No. G. 19.

Submitted that the Public Department may be requested to consider the questions raised by Mr. Tressler in paragraphs 1 and 2 of his letter, a copy of the current with an extract from this note being sent to that Department.

2. In paragraph 3 he raises the question of the daily allowance admissible to him. At present, there is no specially enhanced rate of daily allowance sanctioned for him and he gets Rs. 5 which is the allowance admissible for first-class officers. Article 1063 of Civil Service Regulations. He points out that other heads of departments and officers who have to tour throughout the Presidency are granted enhanced allowances. It is submitted that the Financial Department may be requested to consider the question whether his allowance may not also be raised as in the case of the other officers.

S. KRISHNA AYYAR—7-1-15.

C. RAMANUJACHARI—9-1-15.

Will Financial please consider this matter?

The Director of Industries has not been included in Appendix 25 of the Civil Service Regulations referred to in article 1002 of the Civil Service Regulations. His daily allowance is therefore Rs. 5. The inclusion of the officer in the appendix with a higher rate of daily allowance requires the sanction of the Government of India.

To the Financial Department u.o.

In his notes, dated 20th September 1914, on page 17 of notes to G.O. No. 922, Financial, dated 10th December 1914, Chief Secretary remarked that having regard to the pay of the post (Rs. 1,250—50—1,500), the Director of Industries cannot be regarded as equivalent in rank to a District Collector. The Director is accordingly included only in Class B of the heads of departments mentioned under article 29A on pages 3—4 of the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations.
