Sir,

In G.O.No. 948 Mis., Edl., dated 14th October 1913, Mr. R.W. Ross of the Teachers' College, Saidapet, was granted permission to undertake the writing of a series of 5 English Readers for the Oxford University Press on condition that he retains no interest in their sale. The amount of remuneration which Mr. Ross was to receive in return, was not then settled. He now submits the enclosed copy of the proposal of the publishers containing the terms as regards remuneration etc., and requests permission to accept a sum of Rs.1,400/- offered by the Press for the 1st and 2nd impressions of his Readers I and II. It has been ascertained that a payment of Rs.700/- only will be made ^{now} and that payment of a similar sum will be deferred until all the copies of the 1st Edition have been sold. This fact and the terms of the settlement referred to above do not absolutely ensure Mr. Ross's having no interest in the sale of the Readers. I may, however, mention that not only have I confidence in Mr. Ross's not taking any steps to influence the sale but that his opportunities of doing so will be very limited. Under these circumstances, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to grant the permission sought for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. V. S.
