HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, FORT ST. GEORGE., MADRAS.

The memorial of Chernakothapalle Adinarayanarao., Hd., Clerk; Sri Hathiramjee Mutt., Tirupati, Chittore District.

Most Respectfully Showeth,

That your Excellency's memorialist respectfully begs to bring these following few lines into your Excellency's kind and benign consideration and for favourable orders:-

2. That your Excellency's memorialist was granted in G. O.

(0) No. 53 of 1914, an extension of one year to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test held in October 1914, but owing to adverse circumstances and ordeals through which he had to pass through, he did not come out successfully in the examination to his misfortune.

3. That your Excellency's memorialist is retired public servant and as such he serves no useful purpose practically for public service by passing any examination or examinations.
There seems, however, some theoretical use which the memorialist proposes to avail himself of.

4. That your Excellency's memorialist is of robust and strong constitution, naturally independent, knows nothing of cringing and no godfather to back him up which rendered memorialist's retirement, doubtless after his retiring service, compulsory in spite of the fact that his work and abilities received appreciation and recognition in every quarters of the public-public service and of all superiors under whom he served and he was and is phisically fit for active service. The moiety of pension he gets is not sufficient even for two souls, in these days of dearness of provisions. It is - therefore absolutely necessary to supplement the pension, of course by honest means so as not to find ways for an - alternative. He belongs to a respectable family and is not accustomed to and knows nothing of meanness, cunningness and flattery which is often ^a deliberate attempt to deceive to get some-thing out of some one else by playing upon the commonest foible of human nature and which is only a few steps removed from sycophancy. The memorialist has spared no expense for the purchase of law books and pains to study for the examination more than once, cannot afford to unlearn what little knowledge of law he possesses and trusts that honourable pass in the Criminal Judicial Test will find him some employment in same form or other in Subordinate Criminal Courts and elsewhere where there is recognition of merit.

5. From the circumstances above represented your Excellency will be graciously pleased to observe that the memorialist's case is a fit one for extention of one year or two as a last chance. He therefore prays that the extention prayed for may be granted.

For this act of kindness the memorialist always prays.

Your Excellency's memorialist respectfully begs to remain
