From

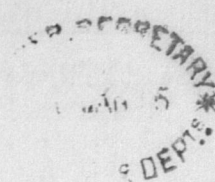

To

The Hon'ble Lieut.-Col. A. F. Pinhey, C.S.I., C.I.E.,

Resident at Hyderabad.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Dated Hyderabad Residency, the 18th January 1915

Sir,

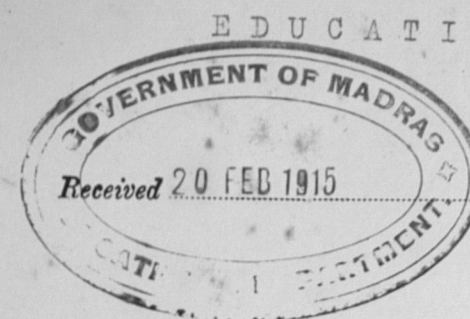

To meet the urgent and increasing demand for qualified teachers which has arisen in consequence of the reorganisation of the education system of the Hyderabad State, His Highness the Nizam's Government have provided for the training in their Normal School of teachers who have been educated up to the Matriculation Standard.

2. It would be difficult, however, to make local arrangements for the training of teachers of a higher grade, as there is only a limited number of English Secondary schools, and, after the first batch of appointments has been made, not more than two or three graduates will be required annually, for some time to come, to fill vacancies in existing or newly created posts in secondary schools.

3. In these circumstances, His Highness' Government are anxious that arrangements should be made for candidates from the State to be trained in British India, but
