(C.N. 431) From the Chief Secy. Magr. No. 62 of 5.2.15.

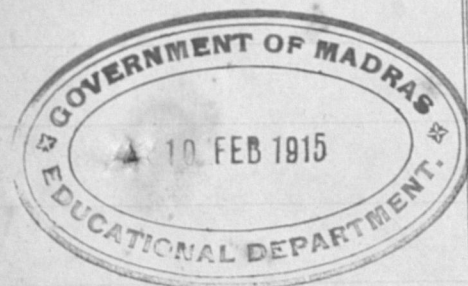

For the U. S.

In the circumstances explained by the Ch. Secy. Magr. Subd. that the proposal to exempt the acting Chief. clark from passing the Precis. Writing Test temporarily for one year, may be supported & passed on to the Ednel. dept. u.o.

P. 3 of

The question raised in para 4 of the Current, i.e. the abolition of the Precis. Writing Test and the substitution of the Account ~~Writing~~ Test for it, is one for consideration in the ~~Ednel. dept.~~ first instance in the Ednel. dept. who in consultation with this dept will pass necessary orders.

The papers may be transferred u.o. to the Ednel. dept.

The G.O. has issued and the file is resubmitted with reference to para. 2. thereof.

2. Prior to the issue of Gono 512, 20th July 1908, all p. 3 of note to Gono 512 9.7.08 ministerial officers who held appointments the maximum pay of which was not less than Rs 60 p.m. were required to pass the Precis. writing test; and the post of Chief Clerk or Manager in the Presidency Magistrate's Courts came under this category. For the reasons discussed at great length in the notes connected with that G.O., it was decided to restrict the test ^(only) to those appointments for which the

Sir A. Lawley's note on 14.2.15 to the G.O.

Revenue and Criminal, higher, tests were compulsory. The post of Chief Clerk or Manager in the Presidency Magistrate's Courts being one of the appointments for which the Criminal, higher, was and is still, compulsory, the Precis. writing test also was made compulsory for it.

3. In para. 4 of his letter disposed of in Gono 37, 20th Feb by the 16th February 1915 the Chief Presidency Magistrate requests the substitution of the account for the Precis.

last for the post of Chief clerk. The Presidency Magistrate has given a few reasons for prescribing the Account for the post, but has advanced no reasons for the abolition of the Precis. writing test. The judicial department may perhaps be able to compare the duties of the Chief Clerk Presidency Magistrate's Courts, with those of Head Clerk and Sheristadars in District Courts, and to advise whether because the Precis. writing test is not required for the latter, it may be dispensed with for the former.

4. The file may be forwarded to the judicial department for remarks in the first instance.

Please see order in Council of 30.5.08 on page 7 of notes to G.O. No. 512 Edt of 9.7.08 on which para 1 of that G.O. is based. Precis Writing Test is made compulsory for the appt. of the Chief Clerk, Presdy. Magistrate Courts, because Criminal Higher is compulsory for it. Neither the Rea. Higher nor the Criminal Higher is required for the posts of Head clerks & Sanishadars of Dist. Courts and Colles' offices and hence precis. writing was dispensed with in respect of these app'ts. The duties entailed by these posts were ^{apparently} not taken into account in arriving at the above decision and it does not seem necessary therefore to compare the respective duties of the Chief Clerk, Presdy. Magistrate Courts, and the H. Co and Sanishadars of Dist. Courts & Colles' offices. The proposal of the Chief Presdy. Magistrate to abolish the precis writing test ~~for~~ may be approved and the Ac. Count test substituted in its place.

If approved the file may be returned to the Educational Dept. for issue of orders.

The Government are of opinion that the Preci-writing test is an important ^{one} ~~time~~ ^{they} ~~feature~~ and are not therefore prepared to accept the suggestion of the Chief Presidency Magistrate that it may be dispensed with for the post of ^c Chief clerk of the Presidency Magistrates' Courts. The Government, however, agree with ^{Mr. Poley} ~~him~~ that a knowledge of the ^A ~~Account~~ test is necessary for the ^c ~~the~~ appointment and are accordingly pleased to prescribe a pass in that test as a qualification in addition to the Preci-writing test.

2. The C.G.E. will be requested to submit a draft of the necessary alterations in the Public Service and Special Tests Notifications.
