Station Madras, Dated the 5th March 1914

From (Name) P.L. Moore, Esquire, C.I.E., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Inspector-General of Police, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

I have the honour to forward herewith an application on behalf of S. Abdul Rahim Sahib, First grade Sub-Inspector of North Arcot district, recommending his permanent exemption from passing the Criminal Lower Test for employment as an Inspector of Police.

2. In November 1912 this Sub-Inspector was recommended to Government for permanent exemption from the test in the following terms:-

"This candidate is a First grade Sub-Inspector and has been in charge of divisions for the last 3 years. He has been placed in charge of the Tiruppattur Circle recently formed as he has very considerable influence over the Muhammadans in Vaniyambadi and Tiruppattur. The late Joint Magistrate (Mr. Hall), Tiruppattur, considers that the Sub-Inspector is an excellent detective and able Police officer in every way. In the recent Tiruppattur riots this Sub-Inspector took much care and trouble in working up cases against his co-religionists. It is not possible for him to study and pass the examination nor is he qualified to appear for the examination. He merits promotion to the grade of Inspector and I strongly recommend his exemption from the Criminal Test as a special case".

Government declined to sanction his exemption - vide G.O.No.1113, Mis., Edl., dated the 13th December 1912. Later, in January 1913, in order to give the Sub-Inspector a chance to qualify, if possible, Mr. Gillman applied to Government on his behalf for permission to appear for the test at the examinations in 1913 and 1914. The grounds of his recommendations were as follow:-

"The applicant was enlisted on 31st January 1891 as a second class constable and promoted to the grade of Sub-Inspector on 1st December 1906. He is now a first grade Sub-Inspector on Rs.100/- per mensem and has been in charge of divisions for over 3 years. On the formation of Tiruppattur circle on the 1st November 1912 the applicant was specially placed in charge of the circle. He was recommended by the Inspector-General of Police for exemption from the Criminal Lower Test, but the Government in their Order No.1113, Mis.Edl., dated the 13th December 1912, declined to exempt him. In consideration of his work which has been uniformly good and of his special services during the riot at Tiruppattur I recommend that he be permitted to appear for the examination in 1913 and 1914 and thus given a chance of qualifying himself for the post of Inspector".

This recommendation was accepted and in G.O.No.120, Mis. Edl., dated the 11th February 1913 and Government were pleased to give the Sub-Inspector two chances of appearing for the examination and qualifying himself. He accordingly appeared for the examinations in 1913 and 1914, with the result that, in the first year, he passed in all the subjects except Medical Jurisprudence, and in the second year, in all except Evidence Act in which he had obtained high marks in the previous examination. For all practical purposes he has satisfied the examiners in all the subjects, though technically he has not passed the test. The District Superintendent of Police and the Deputy Inspector-General of Police consider that his case deserves special treatment and recommend his permanent exemption. I agree with them and submit that he may be permanently exempted from passing the test, as, considering his age (42 years), he is unlikely to pass the examination now. He has been actually performing the duties of an Inspector for over 5 years and his work has been uniformly good. His reversion to charge of a station at this stage would be unfair to him. He has put in 24 years' service and earned 21 Good Service Entries and 7 money rewards for meritorious work during this period. The Superintendent of Police reports that it is only within the last few years that he began to learn English and that he is at present quite capable of carrying on all correspondence in that language. It would appear therefore that what he was able to do at the examination was very creditable to him. His services in connection with the late riots at Tiruppattur and in a few other cases have been such that the only adequate manner in which they can be recognised is by promoting him permanently to the rank of Inspector which he fully deserves, and I trust that Government will see their way to grant him the necessary exemption as a special case.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. S. S.
for Insp.-Genl. of Police.

Register No. 848.

- (B) Please see Gono 1113 Dtd. the 13th December 1912 and 120 Dtd. the 11th December 1913. In the former the Govt. declined to sanction the permanent exemption from the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, of Abdul Rahim Sahib for employment as an Inspector of Police, but in the latter, he was permitted to appear for the test at the examinations held 1913 and 1914. The Candidate having failed to get a pass in the examination, the Dy. of Police now applies for a reconsideration of Gono 1113 Dtd. the 13th December 1912.

requires exceptional treatment? The I. G. Sub-Inspector has done meritorious work in with the late Tirupattur riots + in some other cases, that he has put in a service of 24 years. Considering his age (42 years) he is unfit to pass the exam now. The I. G. on these grounds recommends his permanent exemption. Supt of Police + the D. I. G. also consider this case deserves special treatment.

For orders whether the I. G.'s recommendation will now be supported in full.
