School, Vellore, considers that the lectures are very useful for police officers. The lecturer does not intend to make any profit out of the sales. The Superintendent, Government Museum, whom I have consulted, has no objection to the blocks being used as proposed, provided that the Government sanction it. I recommend that the necessary sanction may be accorded.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. L. Samieth
for Insp.-Genl. of Police.
