Cuo. 6710

The humble petition of B. Halasyanatha
Sastri, Sanscrit Pandit, Native High School, and Founder of "Bharati Mandiram," Kumbakonam.

Most Respectfully sheweth:

That the Petitioner begs leave to submit that he has brought out the Ninth Part of "Srikanta Bhashya" with the commentary "Sivarkamini Dipika" by the famous South Indian Scholar and Teacher, Appayya Bhikshita, whose works have evoked the highest admiration of all lovers of Sanskrit in this country and also in Europe and America. The present publication is his masterpiece.

2 That but for the petitioners efforts in unearthing the moth-eaten manuscripts of this great author's, the work should have been lost in oblivion.

3 That the petitioner commemorated
the Coronation of King Edward VII by founding the "Bharati Mandiram" at Kumbakonam under the auspices of which he began publishing this monumental work of the great Sanskrit Scholar and a series of other works by the same author.

4 That the Government of India in their Order No. 1027 of 6-7-1905 communicated to the Petitioner in the N. Order No. 24 of 17-7-05 of Madras Government, were pleased to sanction the purchase of 5 copies of this valuable publication at a specially enhanced rate of Rs.35/- a copy with a view to encourage the petitioner's efforts -- the price of the book being only Rs.25/- a copy.

5 That at first the work was expected to be finished in seven parts of 100 pages each, Super Royal Octavo, and the price was fixed on that calculation. But now, the work takes nearly 11 parts and the Government of India are pleased to extend their patronage to the Petitioner by sanctioning Rs.5/- for each part of the five copies they purchased instead of a consolidated price of Rs.35/- per copy i.e. they are pleased to purchase it at Rs.50/- a copy and the Government of Madras has also condescended to extend their patronage by offering Rs.5/6 on each additional part also beyond the 7th part.

6 That this extension of kindness on the part of the India Government and the Madras Government is a great condescension, for which the petitioner very respectfully thanks both the Governments.

7 That the Governments were pleased to sanction the purchase of copies of this monumental work when the petitioner had only come out with the first three parts, and that that help from the Governments at that early stage of his publication was most timely and has assisted him a great deal to carry on his work thus far successfully.

8 That the publication cannot be sufficiently encouraged by the general public and that the support he has till now received at the hands of the Governments is not commensurate with his labour and expenses and that therefore the Petitioner prays the Government may be pleased to patronise his undertaking by ordering the purchase of a larger number of copies from him.

9 That besides this work the Petitioner has published the following rare works which also would have never seen the light of day but for his exertions:-

1. "Ananda Lahari" with "Chandrika" by Appayya Dikshitar. price-- Rs. 2-0-0
2. "Uvalayananda" by the same author with commentary "Rasikaranjani." Rs. 2-8-0
3. "Apastamba Dharma Sustras" with commentaries "Ujjvala". Rs. 2-8-0

10 That the petitioner begs to bring to the kind notice of the Government the fact that all these publications are really his original works, inasmuch as he has unearthed the lost works and published them and has not at all re-published any work which has once been published by others.

11 That the petitioner respectfully prays that the Government may be pleased to encourage his publications by sanctioning the purchase of a large number of copies of all his other publications above-mentioned, (and also of the works he may yet publish under the "Bharat Mandiram" series.)

That can be considered when the publication of future works becomes an accomplished fact-

12 That the petitioner herewith submits one copy in each of the above mentioned three works for your kind perusal and order.

He begs to remain,

Your most obedient and faithful servant

"Bharat Mandiram."

NOTES.

I express with pleasure my appreciation of the work which Pandit R. Halasyanatha Sastri is doing in seeking out and publishing manuscripts of importance in the Bharathi Mandiram-Sanskrit series. His edition of the Brahma Sutra Bhashya with the Commentary of Appya Diksitha now in progress seems to me especially a praiseworthy performance and I am sure all interested in Vedantha will thoroughly appreciate the careful labour which the editor has ^{often} expended ~~after~~ under difficulties on his task and will heartily welcome the first appearance in print of this important commentary. His own Tippani added at the end of each Adhikarana, cannot but make the edition more useful.
