OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Permission to appear for special tests.

From the I.G. of Police, No. 212 P.D., the 22nd March 1915.

Register No. 1099.

The permission to appear for the Criminal Judicial test, lower grade, applied for by the I.G. of Police on behalf of Narasimha Rao Nayudu is required under para. 4 of the Special Tests Notification. The general principle observed in deciding such applications is that such permission should be granted only in exceptional cases and that to men who possess at least some educational attainments, the object of the rule being to encourage men to go on with a University Course. For precedents in which examples ^(however) have been granted in similar cases in the Police Department, please see Gono. 486 Ed. by the 18th and 437 Ed. by the 20-4-14.

2. The Judicial Department may be requested to state whether the present application of the I.G. of Police may be granted. It will be observed that the I.G. has not furnished the declaration required by para. 2 of Gono. 173 Ed. by the 16th March 1915.

It is evident from the I.G.'s remarks in Column 9 of the Application that the exemption recommended is solely in the interests of the individual concerned. But please see G.O. 437 S.D. 20.4.14 in which an exemption of this kind was granted under ~~section 10~~ ^{section 10} similar circumstances. For orders therefore whether this Dept. may support the I.G.'s recommendation A.K.K. in the present case.
