Ref. on Cur. No. 1284/15,

Station Madras , Dated the 1st April 1915

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. H.S. Duncan, M.A., (Designation) Ag. Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

/Through the Accountant General/
Sir,

(To) In their order No. 479, Edl., dated 31st May 1912 Government sanctioned the Director's proposal to grant temporarily for a year a personal allowance of Rs. 55/- per mensem to the Headmistress of the Government Girls' School, Madura, so that it might be possible to secure and retain the services of a qualified Anglo-Indian Headmistress; but it will be noticed from Sir Alfred Bourne's letter to Government Ref. on Cur. No. 7603 of 13, dated 25th September 1913 read in G.O.No. 1096 Press Edl., dated 25th November 1913 that so far as the Government Girls'

School, Madura, and a few others in the Southern Circle were concerned, the experiment of providing superior posts for Anglo-Indian Mistresses had failed owing to a dearth of qualified Anglo-Indian mistresses, notwithstanding the higher amount of emoluments offered for them, and that consequently no action was then proposed to be taken in the matter of raising the salary of those posts still further. The acting Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle, now informs me that she has succeeded in securing the services of a Miss Grace Winfred Thompson, a trained Anglo-Indian Mistress of ^{the} Secondary Grade, who it is reported, was induced by Miss Arnold, the late Inspectress of the Circle, to give up her work in an institution under private management in view to her being appointed Headmistress of the Government Girls' School, Madura. It is pointed out that the appointment of an Anglo-Indian mistress will benefit the school, inasmuch as she will be enabled not only to look after the English teaching of all the classes but also to improve the tone and discipline of the school. In the above circumstance and in view of the fact that considerable difficulty is being experienced at Madura in finding suitable house accommodation, unless heavy rents are paid, the acting Inspectress recommends strongly ^{that} ~~but~~ a personal allowance of Rs.50/- may be attached to the post of Headmistress in order that the emoluments of the post may be identical with those sanctioned for the Headmistresses of the Government Girls' Schools at Vellore, Nellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam, Viz., Rs.90 per mensem.

2. The Government Girls' School, Madura, which contains 8 standards has 170 pupils on the rolls as detailed in the margin and the present staff consists of 7 teachers

I consider that such an important school with a numerically strong staff should have an efficient Anglo-Indian mistress at its head; and seeing that the place is as expensive to live as Vellore, Nellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam and that the salary offered should be sufficient for an Anglo-Indian lady to maintain herself in tolerable comfort, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to attach temporarily for 1 year with effect from 1st proximo a personal allowance of Rs.50/- per mensem to the Headmistress's post at Madura in view to the appointment of Miss Thompson to it.

p.142 CB-2 1315-4 3. As regards the expenditure of Rs.550/- involved by the above proposal, I beg to state that Rs.420/- has been provided in the Civil Budget Estimate for the year 1915-16 on account of the personal allowance of the headmistress at Rs.35/- per mensem which is the rate originally sanctioned for the post. An additional sum of Rs.130/- will thus be required and I request that this may be provided in the Civil Budget Estimate now before Government. If this is not feasible, I shall submit a reappropriation statement on receipt of the Civil Budget Estimate for the year 1915-16.

4. I solicit the favour of early orders on this communication.

5. This letter is based on the orders passed by the

2. Attention is invited to Government of India Finance Department No. 398 A dated 31st August 1912 embodied in G.O. No. 600 dated 27th September 1912 under which remunerative personal allowance should not ordinarily exceed 20 per cent of the officer's salary.

3. There is no audit objection to the proposal of the Director being sanctioned by Government, if there are special circumstances to justify the grant of higher rates of allowances.

4. It is now too late to include the additional provision required by the Director of Public Instruction in the Budget Estimate of 1915-16. If his proposal is sanctioned, he may be requested to submit, if necessary, an application for the re-appropriation of funds required to meet the additional expenditure involved by the proposal.

SUBJECT. Grant of a personal allowance of Rs 50/- p. m. to the headmistress, Govt. Girls' School, Madurai, for a period of one year.

From the D. P. I. D. O. C. No. 1284 d/18

the 18 April 1915.

Register No. 1423 Edl.

The principle that in centres where it is desired to attract caste girls to Government Girls' schools, European or Eurasian headmistresses must be employed until a sufficient number of caste mistresses is available has long been accepted and holds good in regard to such important centres as Nellore, Vellore, Cuddalore, Kumbakonam, Madura, Karur and Erode. In order to employ European or Eurasian headmistresses, the Government in their order No. 479 Edl., dated the 31st May 1912, sanctioned the proposals of the D.P.I. to grant a personal allowance of Rs. 10 to the headmistresses of the schools in the first four places (Nellore, Vellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam) and of Rs. 35 to the headmistresses in the remaining three places (Madura, Karur and Erode). Though the allowances sanctioned differ, the total emoluments were the same. In the case of the first four places the total emoluments have subsequently been raised to Rs.90 (pay Rs.65 plus personal allowance Rs.25). The present proposal of the Director is to place the headmistress of the Madura school on the same footing and accordingly proposes to increase her emoluments to Rs.90 (pay Rs.40 plus personal allowance 50). It will be seen that though the total emoluments proposed are the same, the personal allowance in the case of Madura is Rs.50 against Rs.25 in the case of Nellore, Vellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam.

2. It may be mentioned that in Madura, Erode and Karur, the experiment of employing Anglo-Indian headmistresses has till now failed owing to the dearth of qualified candidates and a qualified woman being now available, it is proposed to employ her at Madura and place her on the same footing as the headmistresses at Vellore, Nellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam as regards the emoluments. The total emoluments being the same in all these cases, it is probably an advantage to retain the present permanent pay of Rs.40 and increase the personal allowance to Rs.50 in the case of Madura, which will for the present be for one year.

3. A draft order is submitted for approval.

It may be sent to Financial for acceptance.

2. A remuneration of Rs 90^x p.m. to the Anglo Indian headmistresses of the Govt. girls' schools at Nellore, Vellore, Cuddalore and Kumbakonam has been accepted in Financial. The present proposal to give a like remuneration ^{in order to become Anglo Indian} ~~to the~~ headmistress for the Govt. girls' school at Madura may be accepted.

para 3 of letter p. 3 CF.

Judging from the date of the letter - 1st April - it must have been drafted in March; and the use of the expression 1st proximo added to the fact that the extra cost during the current year is pub. at Rs 550 leads me to believe that the intention of the Director of Education was that the allow. should be sanctioned from the 1st April 1915. However we may agree to the draft though it might save a further reference if sanction to the allowance were sanctioned given from the date. Miss Thompson was engaged.
