From the notes with Lys no 194 Edl. dated the 14th February 1914 it ~~was~~ is observed that there was no ~~intention~~ intention of declining to ~~recommend~~ recommend the grant of the allowance with effect from the 11th November 1913. The letter to India did not, however, expressly state that the allowance should take effect from that date. There appears therefore to be no objection to address India at present.
