Kurnool,
Dated 4th March 1915.

To

The Honourable

The Member of the Board of Revenue,

Separate Revenue, Chepauk, Madras.

Thro'

The Inspector, Salt, Abkari and Customs Department, Kurnool.

and

The Assistant Commissioner, Bellary Sub-Division, Bellary.

The humble petition of V. Madamuni Nayudu, Sub Inspector Salt, Abkari & Customs Department, Kurnool, most respectfully sheweth as follows:-

1. That your humble petitioner is now over 45 years of age, that his memory is weak and that he finds it difficult to remember what he reads.

2. That your petitioner has had serious domestic calamities and that a reflection over them upsets his mind so much that he is unable to apply himself to the study of books at this age.

3. That your petitioner has always been discharging his duties to the best of his ability and that his work has received the appreciation of his successive Inspectors and Assistant Commissioners.

4. That your petitioner's detection-record has always been a satisfactory one and it is his good work that has brought ^{him} to this present grade.

5. That in consideration of his age, long and faithful service and uniform good work and conduct, your petitioner most respectfully and humbly begs to take his prayer into your benign consideration and kindly exempt him from passing the departmental tests. tests A and B

With Respects, Your petitioner humbly begs to remain,

Your Honour's

Most Obedient and Humble Servant,

(Sd.) V. Madamuni,
II Grade Salt Sub-Inspector, Kurnool Circle.

Extract of the endorsement of the Assistant Commissioner, Bellary Sub-Division, C. R. 512, dated 10-3-1915.

Submitted to the Deputy Commissioner for favourable consideration. The Sub Inspector is a satisfactory and steady worker and a reliable man of good character. His prayer might be granted as a special case.
and

Copy of the extract of the Deputy Commissioner's endorsement
C. R. No. 512/15, dated 20th April 1915.

The Sub Inspector is now past 45 years of age and completed 21 years of service on 1-4-1915, I consider it too much to expect a man of the Sub Inspector's age to pass the Examination and strongly support the recommendation of the local officers that the Sub Inspector may be exempted from passing the tests as a special case.

for Deputy Commissioner.
