Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the payment of an honorarium of Rs.300/- to Mr. K.C. Macartney, M.A., Professor of English Literature, Madras Christian College, for having delivered three lectures a week amounting to eighteen in all, to the English Honours classes in the Presidency College so as to complete for the term the courses left unfinished by the late Mr. Mackintosh. The Principal reports that the work could not be undertaken by M.R. Ry S.E. Ranganathan Avargal, the then acting additional Professor of English as the lectures which remained to be delivered were of an advanced and specialized character on a period of literature specially studied by the late Mr. Mackintosh and by Mr. Macartney but not studied by M.R.Ry Ranganathan and as there was no time for the latter to prepare for the Honours work.

The previous sanction of Government could not be obtained as the conduct of the lectures had to be arranged for without loss of time. Mr. Middlemast states that the arrangement met with the approval of Mr. Stone .

2. The extra charge can be met from savings under salaries in the College budget for the current year.

3. I may point out that out of the pay of Rs.650/- per mensem which the late Mr.Mackintosh was in receipt of the chain of acting arrangements sanctioned until Mr. Hodges was appointed to the post of additional Professor of English

	Ag. allowance monthly rate. Rs. --	cost Rs.250 only per mensem resulting in a saving of Rs.400 per mensem during the period.
