Copy of letter from the District Judge of Cuddapah, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras, No.940, dated 10th March 1915.

T.S.Ramanatha Ayyar, clerk of the District Munsif's Court, Gooty, who was permitted by Government to appear for some special Tests (Vide G.O.No.274 Mis. Educational, dated the 4th April 1913, communicated with High Court's Proceedings Dis. No.571 dated the 19th April 1913) has not been able to pass 2 out of the three tests within the 2 years' time allowed therein for reasons set out in his application enclosed. He has therefore applied for an extension of the period by 3 years.

2. The District Munsif of Gooty strongly recommends the said application (Vide copy of his letter No.747 dated the 5th March 1915 enclosed).

3. I have therefore the honour to request that the High Court may be pleased to get the necessary sanction.

mentioned in his application, he should have succeeded in the examinations last year. He is poor and has come from a distant district and deserves the concession he prays

Most Honoured Sir,

I, T. S. Ramanatha Aiyar, Clerk District Munsiff's Court, Gooty, most humbly and respectfully beg to submit the following few lines for your honour's kind perusal and favourable consideration.

2. In the year 1912 I was allowed to appear for the following tests by the exemption granted in Government Order No. 474 dated 31st May 1912, ~~for the following tests:-~~
Educational

1. The Account Test Lower Grade.
2. The Translation Test Lower Grade in Tamil.
3. Do Do in Telugu.
4. The Civil Judicial Test.

3. In that year I passed the Account Test, but was not able to appear for the Translation Test in Telugu and the Civil Judicial Test. So in the next year I was again granted exemption for a period of 2 years (1913 & 1914) for the following tests:-

1. The Translation Test Lower Grade in Tamil.
2. do do in Telugu
3. The Civil Judicial Test.

vide Government Order No. 274 Misc., dated 4th April 1913

Educational

(communicated with the High Court's Proceedings Dis. No. 571 dated 19th April 1913, and District Court's Dis. No. 1508 dated 22nd April 1913).

4. In the year 1913 I could not, through my poverty, ^{as} apply for leave and hence I had to work in the Office, I had not sufficient leisure for preparation and so failed in the Examinations. In the year 1914 I fell ill shortly before the Examination (vide Medical Certificate enclosed) and the long-standing illness of my son and my father-in-law, the latter's case having become dangerous at the time of my examination and having finally proved fatal, added to my troubles, with the result that I failed to secure a pass again.

5. I therefore request that your honour will be so good as to take pity on my condition and get me exemption, for another period of three years, to permit me to appear for the latter mentioned three tests, as the time-table, of the Examination, itself requires a minimum period of 2 years. The testimonials enclosed show what my superior officers have thought of me.

For which act of kindness, I shall, as in duty bound ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

in Gons. 274 mi of the 4-4-13. In 1913 he could not conveniently take leave for preparing for the examination and in 1914 he failed in the examination owing to his own illness and to the illness of his father-in-law who eventually died. For these reasons an extension of three years' time is now applied for.

2. According to the arrangement of the time table a candidate can appear for the Civil judicial test and the Translation test in one language in one or the same year. Ramanaatha Iyyar has to appear for the Translation test in two languages. Hence he requires a minimum of two years' extension, if at all. It is for consideration whether the extension of two years may be granted with a warning that in further extension will be granted.

the special tests are prescribed only for higher appointments for the proper discharge of whose duties ^(certain) special or technical qualifications are required. Art. 4 of the Special Tests Notification lays down the standard of general education qualification required in a candidate for admission to the special tests. The intention of so fixing the standard of the general general education qualification appears to be to force up the educational standard of the grades of appointments for which the special tests are required. In this view, special permission to persons who do not possess the minimum general education qualification prescribed by the Govt. is granted only on very special grounds, the main principle kept in view in granting such permissions being that the exemption is in the interest of the public service. It is also the policy of the Govt. to restrict as far as possible admission to the special tests. The principles referred to above have been ^{adhered to} maintained, as a rule, as far as possible.

2. When unpassed men are specially permitted to appear for the special tests, ordinarily only two chances are given, apparently on the assumption that if one cannot pass in that time he cannot be considered to be really efficient, and that if unpassed men continue to be admitted to these tests, year after year, without any limit of time the principles referred to in para. 1 would be violated. Moreover, if an unpassed man is allowed to go up for the higher tests he will displace some one who has taken the trouble to obtain higher education; on this ground also it is derivable to grant a person ^(permission) to appear for the tests repeatedly.
