SUBJECT.

Payment of deputation and acting allowances during the period of the training of Mr. R. K. In. Suryanarayana, sub-assistant inspector of schools.

(F) In G.O. no. 45 Edl., dated the 25th January 1884, the D.P. J. was authorized to send teachers or deputy (now sub-assistant) inspectors to the normal school to be trained on half pay, ~~provis~~ on the condition that the arrangements made for the discharge of their duties during absence should not cause any additional cost to Provincial funds. In 1904, ~~where~~ at the instance of the Local Govt. the Govt. of India sanctioned certain concessions to native teachers permitted to attend training institutions. - G.O. no 700 Edl., dated the 28th November 1904. The A.G. enquired in 1907 whether in view of the orders in 1904, the G.O. of 1884 was in force and was informed that the order of 1904 did not cancel those of 1884. The original order has ~~also~~ ^{accordingly} been incorporated in the Madras Supplement to the C.S. Rules art. 68A.

(H) 2. The A.G. now considers that the sanction of the Govt. is necessary for the payment of deputation and acting allowances ~~paid~~ during the period of deputations of Mr. M. Sanyasayan, but assistant director of schools, to the teachers college, although the arrangements have not entailed any additional cost on Provincial funds. He bases his authority on rule 1 under art. 86 of the C.S.R. which was inserted by a correction slip issued in 1911. The D.P.D. solicits for the sanction of the Govt. for the specific case in question and also general sanction for all such cases ~~where~~ where arrangements can be made without extra expense. The A.G. recommends that both the sanctions applied for may be accorded.

3. The question for consideration is whether any fresh sanction is now necessary. The rule of 1911 referred to by the A.G. merely empowers the local Govt. to allow such arrangements to be made in place of officers ^{in accordance with the} and permitted to undergo training. This Govt. have already exercised this power and permitted the D.P.D. to make such arrangements. The order of 1884 is not inconsistent with the rule inserted in 1911 and may, it is submitted, be taken as one issued under the new rule. If so no ~~new~~ fresh sanction would seem to be necessary.

4. The remarks of the Financial Department may be invited.
