3. This Conference offers its thanks to the Government for the sympathetic attention it has accorded to popular demands for a technical and commercial institution in the Telugu Country, and an Arts College in the Ceded Districts, and requests

(a) the Government, to open more High Schools for girls in the Telugu Districts of the Presidency.

(b) to establish an Engineering College with instruction in electrical engineering; Medical and Agricultural College and Schools, a school of Arts, and an Ayurvedic Medical College and

(c) to afford to backward areas in the Telugu Districts the necessary facilities in regard to school fees, and to relax the rigour of the rules in the Grant in Aid Code.

4. This Conference urges upon the Government the necessity of adopting the Telugu Language as the medium of instruction gradually up to the School Final Pass Course, in order to render the acquisition, and spread of knowledge easier and more speedy, making the English language also a compulsory subject.

5. This Conference urges upon the Government the necessity of establishing a fully/equipped university in the Andhra Country for the progress of the Telugu people, and to meet the growing demands of modern times and conditions.

(b) ~~and~~ requests the Andhra Sahitya Parishat of Madras to expedite the publication of the Andhra Nighantu (Telugu Lexicon) started by the munificence of the Rajah of Pithapuram and

(c) also offers its thanks to the Government for the grant made for the Nighantu.

8 (i) That to ensure efficient administration and the promotion of the best interests of the people of India, language areas have to be made the territorial basis of provincial administration as far as possible.

(ii) That provincial administration on such a basis is essential to the fulfilment of the ideals of self-government enunciated by the Congress and of provincial autonomy foreshadowed by the Government of India.

(iii) That this Conference is of opinion that it is desirable to constitute the Telugu speaking areas of the Madras Presidency into province ~~and~~
