The Hon'ble Mr. K. P. Raman Menon.

20 Q.—Will the Government be pleased to order the Director of Industries to make an industrial survey of the fanatical taluks of Ernad and Walluvanad and see if the Government can open any new industry or develop any old industry so that the unemployed who join at fanatical outbreaks may have some employment?

[Meeting of 25th May 1915.]

The Govt. will consider the suggestion.
It is for consideration
whether the Judicial Dept. may be consulted as to whether they accept the draft. It is not likely unlikely that that Dept. may have some information on the point.

The Gazetteer of the Malabar Dist. gives some information about the industries of the taluks. The question whether any existing industry in the two taluks referred to can be improved may, perhaps, be examined by the Dept. of Industries. The answer may perhaps be that

"The Govt. will consider the suggestion."

It is, however, for consideration whether the judicial Dept. may also be consulted as to whether they accept the draft. It is not ~~likely~~ unlikely that that Dept. may have some information on the point.

The Justices should first rate. The intention is that it is a portion of an employment. Just have some matrices to show that the work attached was furnished from and sample.

Attention is invited to paras 48 and 49 of Mr. Innes' report ~~on~~ dated the 23rd March 1915 on the malabar outbreak in which he has ^{clearly} pointed out that fanaticism was the immediate cause of the outbreak and poverty had very little to do with it. The two large rubber estates at Kalikavu and Karuvana Kunder afford continuous employment to thousands of coolies, most of whom are Mappillas. Mr. Innes reports that "there is not a trace of agrarian or tenancy trouble behind the outbreak and none of the raihs was particularly poverty-stricken". It would thus appear that the trouble was not in any way due to unemployment and it does not ^{therefore} seem ^{solely with a view} necessary to start any new industries to keep the people employed.

With these remarks the file may be returned to Educational.

It is for consideration whether, in view of the note of the Judicial Department above the answer should be that ^{the Govt. do not consider that} the fanatical outbreaks referred to are ~~not~~ due to unemployment."

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR

(Through THE HON'BLE MEMBER, JUDICIAL)

I would suggest the following reply:--

"The Government do not consider that an industrial survey is specially needed for the Ernad and Walluvanad taluks: and would add that the recent outbreak was wholly fanatical and had nothing to do with any question of unemployment."

I would say "the recent outbreak" instead of "these outbreaks" for unemployment was one of the causes of past outbreaks.

The final form of the question & answer was as shown below:-

Industrial survey in Ernad and Walluvanad taluks, Malabar district.

18 Q.—Will the Government be pleased to order the Director of Industries to make an industrial survey of the fanatical taluks of Ernad and Walluvanad and see if the Government can open any new industry or develop any old industry so that the unemployed who join at fanatical outbreaks may have some employment?

18 A.—The Government do not consider that an industrial survey is specially needed for the Ernad and Walluvanad taluks: there is at present no evidence before the Government indicating that the recent outbreak was due to unemployment.
