To Under Secy.

Please see the question in the C. 7. The Adm. member presumably refers to the conference held by Mr. Proctor last year in connection with the development of industrial education. The papers about this conference are in the Educ. Dept. who may be requested to state whether they would take charge of the question. See Ag.

Towards the close of last year there were two conferences, one relating to industrial education ^(which was convened by Mr. Trevelyan) & the other relating to Agriculture & trade which was opened by H.E. the Governor. Apparently the Additional Member refers to the former as the latter was more an agricultural than an industrial conference.

In regard to the industrial education conference, it is submitted that there were two committees, one appointed by the Govt. to consider questions relating to the establishment of a technical school in Madras with a system of ^{State} Apprenticeship, the other formed by Mr. Trevelyan to discuss general principles in regard to industrial & technical education in the Presidency. The recommendations of the two committees with a draft 'Code for industrial schools & with proposals for the Madras Trades School have been received & ~~these~~ are under examination in office. It does not appear to be desirable to publish the recommendations of the committees at this stage.
