Copy of letter from the District Judge, Guntur, to the Registrar, High Court, Madras, Dis.A/Civil dated 24th April 1915.

H3-8upra

I have the honour to forward herewith an application from P. Narasimham Nayadu, a permanent 1st Grade Amin and S.P.T.Clerk of this Court praying that he may be permanently exempted from Examination rules for holding appointments up to Rs.30/-. He has put in a service of 16 years and has been working as a clerk for about five years past continuously. He is one of the very few Amins who take to Office work with earnestness and zeal. His work was uniformly good and though he is an unpassed man, he is as good as, if not better than, an average passed man. He has been very well spoken of by Mr. T.T.Rengachariar, retired District Judge, and also by several District Munsifs. He is a thoroughly honest and reliable clerk and is also well connected. I strongly recommend that the permanent exemption prayed for may be granted as he deserves it. I appointed him to act as a clerk on Rs.25/- exempting him from the examination rules for a period of one/^{year}in exercise of the powers vested in me under the Public Service Notification, and the period of sanction will expire on 7th June 1915. The permanent exemption now applied for is necessary if he should continue as a clerk on Rs.25/-.

Through

The Honourable the Judges of the High Court of Judicature,

Madras.

Through

The District Judge,

Guntur.

The humble petition of Fasupuleti Narasimham 1st grade Amin and acting 1st assistant Record-keeper on Rs. 25/- District Court, Guntur for being exempted from the operation of article I of Public Service Notification for holding a permanent post on Rs. 30/-

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That the petitioner has been the permanent 1st grade Amin on Rs. 20/- in the District Court, Guntur and acting as clerk on Rs. 20/- for the last 8 years and continuously for the past 5 years.

2. That he entered service in the year 1899 and put in a total service of 16 years and has by dint of hard-work risen to the present office.

3. That he passed the Government Lower Secondary Examination in 1897 and Survey Test prescribed for Revenue Inspectors in 1st class and received education up to the Matriculation standard.

4. That the petitioner has during his long service of 16 years had the fortune of serving under many officers all of whom were invariably satisfied with his hard-work and pleased with his good conduct and the testimonials he possesses (copies of which are hereto annexed) will speak

Sir,

In reply to the points called for an explanation in the Dis. No. 409 dated 27-1-06, I have the honour to state that the grade promotions given to the two 3rd grade amins were made one on the ground of seniority and the other on merit.

In sending two 3rd grade amins to the District Court as --- process-writers Y. Srikrishna Rao, though not a senior was recommended and approved by the District Court to act for 2nd grade on 3 months temporary exemption from 1-10-05 and in succession, P. Narasimham one of the two is recommended.

He is a Lower Secondary candidate and passed in the 1st class survey test prescribed for Revenue Inspectors which is a highly --- desirable qualification for an amin doing outdoor duty. For this --- purpose I want to take him and send another to the District Court in his stead. Narasimham is thus better qualified than all his seniors in the 3rd grade who underwent the elementary training which is not after all of much use to me when they have to prepare schemes of --- division in even ordinary cases of difficulty as my experience of such amins goes. Besides his conduct is exemplary and his work has been tested by me and I have found him uniformly good and faultless. I am thinking of recommending him for exemption so that he may be promoted to Rs.15 but as his service as amin is very short I have not therefore done so as yet, 3 I have known Mr. Pasupuleti Narasimham Naidu for about five years and can conscientiously testify to his keen intelligence, great industry and high character. He served under me as ---- Sheristadar's assistant in the District Court, Guntur, for over three years and I always found him very zealous and scrupulously honest in the discharge of his duties. He belongs to a respectable Naidu family and is well connected. His general behaviour is exemplary. He always struck me as the man for any position of confidence and responsibility. He merits every possible encouragement.

4 I have great pleasure in certifying that I have known Pasupuleti Narasimham Naidu, a clerk in the District Court of Guntur since about 1908 when I was Sheristadar of that Court and I have always found him to be well behaved and deserving of encouragement. He first attracted my attention by his diligence and industry and by the conscientious way in which he used to discharge his duties as a 3rd grade amin and in due course I got him promoted to an acting clerk's place. I now find from the testimonial given him by my friend and successor Mr.V.V. Subbarow, every word of which I heartily endorse that he has fulfilled my expectations and justified my selection. Uncomplaining by nature, thoroughly reliable in character, quick in comprehending the details of any work entrusted to him, neat in appearance and manners and always respectful in demeanour towards his superiors, I consider him to be a useful and desirable member for any establishment. He belongs to a respectable family well known in these parts and is -- well connected. I conscientiously recommend him for permanent exemption for a clerk's place on Rs.25 which he richly deserves and I wish him success in any attempt in that direction. I am sure that the authorities recommending and granting the exemption he tries for will never have occasion to repent of their just and generous act.

Attention is invited to the Sr Judge's letter on p 2 CF recommending the exemption which is made on personal grounds. The various testimonials which the applicant holds show him to be an intelligent person. It is for consideration whether intelligence in the discharge of his duties alone could be regarded as a special justification for
