Resolution No.

Resolution XXXI.

Andhra movement.

This Conference exhorts every Andhra to do his best for the Andhra Movement as it will be the cause of political, social, and economical advancement of the Telugu country; and submits to the Government the advisability of dividing India into separate provinces on the basis of language, and the necessity of constituting the 11 Telugu speaking Districts into a separate province. This Conference further requests the Government to establish an university on modern lines in the Telugu country.
