I am not sure whether this report serves any useful purpose. The bulk of the copies purchased in recent years went to Collectors, but whether any use was made of them is doubtful. I would therefore be inclined to discontinue our patronage, but if this is not agreed to I would, whilst purchasing the usual number this year, inquire from Collectors whether they find the publication of any value or whether future supplies may be discontinued. It is true that the amount involved is not of very great account, but there is no necessity <sup>to spend the</sup> money unless we get a return for it.

I agree. I would cut out Collectors.
