Resolution No.

Resolution XXIV.

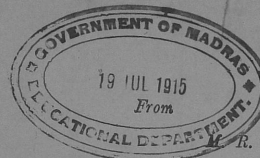

Opening new Schools in the District.

This Conference requests the Government to open a High School for boys at Gudivada, Lower Secondary Schools for boys at Kovvur, Avanigadda, Kaikalur, and Nandigama, a High School for girls at Masulipatam, and Lower Secondary Schools for girls in all the important towns in the District.

This Conference requests the President of the Narsapur Taluk Board to transfer the Bhimavaram Lower Secondary School to Ganapavaram or Undi, wherever the people may come forward with substantial help in the shape of School house &c.

The policy of the Government in regard to elementary education is to rely on the agency of the Government. The Government will be interested in the establishment of new schools. It is requested that the Government should be able to transfer the Bhimavaram Lower Secondary School to Ganapavaram or Undi, wherever the people may come forward with substantial help in the shape of School house &c.

Resolution No.

Resolution XXII. Free and Compulsory Primary Education.

As the country cannot become better unless primary education is taught freely and compulsorily, this Conference requests the Government to undertake necessary legislation on the subject.

In their policy the Govt
of Madras
states that free & compulsory education is not practicable at present.
