Station Madaras, Dated the 24th July 1915

From (Name) the Hon^{ble}. H. S. Duncan, M. A.,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, EDUCATIONAL Department.

Sir,

In submitting herewith a copy of letter R. C. No. 78 of 1915 dated 3rd July 1915 from Miss De la Hay, Principal, Madras College for Women, I have the honour to recommend that, in the circumstances stated, her absence for four days from the 26th June 1915 in continuation of the Summer vacation of the College may, as a special case, be treated as casual leave.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

C. Krishna Rao

Letter from the Principal, Madras College for Women, Madras, R. C. No.78/1915, dated 3rd July 1915 to the Director of Public Instruction.

"With reference to the correspondence ending with your Proceedings R. C. No.2051 of 1915, dated 12th April 1915, I have the honour to state that I returned to duty only on the 30th June 1915.

"I booked the return passage by the Bibby Line as the arrival in Madras was timed for the 23rd June 1915, i.e., three days before the re-opening of this College. I specially chose the Bibby Line, as its times had been reliable but I regret to state that the boat was delayed in Marseilles for 7 days owing to the difficulty in discharging cargoes and that no other boat was available which could arrive sooner. I was therefore only able to reach Colombo on the 28th June.

"The circumstances under which I could not be present in Madras on the day of the re-opening of the College were beyond my control and I request that you will be so good as to recommend that the period of overstay for 4 days (26 to 29) be treated as subsidiary leave".

SUBJECT ^{recommending} ~~Recommending~~ that the absence of Miss D' Dela Hey ^{four} ~~four~~ days may be treated as casual leave.

Please see the notes and orders with G. O.

(F) No. 362 Edl., dated the 30th March 1915 in which Miss D' Dela Hey, Principal of the Matras College for women, was permitted to spend in England the last summer -- vacation of the college on the distinct understanding that no relaxation of rules would be made in the event of overstayed due to any cause. Miss D' Dela Hey actually overstayed the vacation by four days i.e., from the 26th to the 29th June inclusive. The D. P. I however recommends that in the circumstances stated by her, the period may, as a special case, be treated as casual leave. It may be observed that the orders in

(F) G. O. No. 362 Edl., dated the 30th March 1915 were based on India's orders to the effect that they had no objection to educational officers entitled to a vacation taking their vacation ^{outside India} ~~provided~~ that such officers understood that no relaxation of the rules ^{would} ~~was~~ ordinarily be made in the event of overstayal due to causes attributable to war. In the present case the cause is directly attributable to war and if India's orders were strictly adhered to, the D. P. I's request to treat her absence as casual leave cannot be complied with. But it may be observed that Miss D' Dels Hey who was entertained only on the 1st July 1914 is not eligible for any kind of leave and the whole of summer vacation together with the four days' absence will consequently have to be treated as leave without allowances entailing forfeiture of all previous eligibility to privilege leave. This appears to be very hard and it is therefore for consideration whether the D. P. I's recommendation to treat her absence as casual leave may be accepted as a very special case. If so, the draft order submitted below is for approval.
