NOTES.

C. No. 2715 From the Registrar, Madras University No. 4628, dated the 4th Aug 1905.

SUBJECT. Appointment of special University lecturers

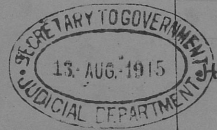

cf. Dr. Mouree's note on
p. 5 of G.O. 1200
16. 12. 12

The sanction of Govt. to the appointment of special University lecturers is required under para. 2 of G.O. 565 Dtd. the 14th June 1913 which is based on the Govt. of India's letter on page 19 of that G.O. the object of this is to veto the appointment of any individual whose lectures might contain objectionable matter.

2. Lt Col. Donovan is an officer of Govt. and his appointment can be made no objection. As regards the other two gentlemen, one is a servant of the Mysore State and the other of the Cochin State. It is not likely that they will import politics into their lectures and the subjects - architecture and Indian ethnology - also do not appear to admit of any such importation. If this view is concurred in, the appointments may be approved at once. Otherwise, the S.P.D. may be requested to state whether he finds any objection to the two non-official gentlemen recommended by the University.

3. Subject to orders on the preceding paragraph a draft order is submitted for approval.
