To

SIR T. W. HOLDERNESS, K.C.B., K.C.S.I.,

His Majesty's Under Secretary of State for India.

Simla, the 30th July 1915.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to Mr. Seton's letter no. 1081-J. and P., dated the 19th March 1915, and to forward for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State a copy of the marginally noted papers regarding an application, for an appointment in the Indian Educational Service, from Miss A. L. Janau, lately Mistress of Method at St. Mary's High School, Poona.

2. It is thought Miss Janau's somewhat advanced age should not be regarded as a serious obstacle to her employment under Government and that her educational qualifications and her long experience of educational work should be very valuable. But if she is admitted to Government service it would perhaps be preferable that she be appointed on special terms personal to herself. The papers relating to her candidature have been circulated to all Local Governments and Administrations.

3. It will be observed from paragraph 2 of the letter from the Government of Madras dated the 17th June last (enclosure 3) that Miss Janau made a direct application to the Secretary of State owing to a misunderstanding on her part.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

H. SHARP,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

I am directed to forward a copy of the marginally noted papers with a view to bringing the name of Miss
A. L. Janau, lately Mistress of Method

2. Miss Janau is 42 years of age. It is, however, thought that this fact need not be considered a serious bar to her employment under Government.
Her educational qualifications seem to be very good and she has a long experience

WEST SUSSEX EDUCATION COMMITTEE,

HORSHAM,

May 11th, 1905.

I have very great pleasure in bearing testimony to the excellent services Miss A. L. Janau, B. Sc. (London), has rendered to my Committee as Head Mistress of the Chichester Pupil Teachers' Centre. Miss Janau began the work here, and has carried through the whole organization of this school with splendid success. Speaking quite candidly, I do not think anyone else could have done the work as well as Miss Janau has done it. She came to it with a thorough knowledge of its difficulties and of its possibilities, and she has spared no pains in seeking to do her utmost for the students committed to her charge. The classes have grown rapidly in numbers till they now severely tax the accommodation provided. Besides being a teacher of the highest skill and resource, Miss Janau has proved herself to be a most admirable Head Mistress. She has supervised the work of her assistants with great tact and discretion, and has greatly encouraged them in their very difficult tasks. When my Committee decided to establish Pupil Teachers' Centres in this county, knowing of Miss Janau's previous remarkable record, I obtained leave to offer her the post of Head Mistress at Chichester.

12/

I shall very greatly regret Miss Janau's leaving, but I heartily wish her success in any new sphere of work she undertakes, and I feel sure that no Committee could have a more faithful and efficient servant.

LIONEL THOMPSON,
Secretary.

BISHOP OTTER COLLEGE,
CHICHESTER.
3rd June, 1909.

I have very great pleasure in bearing emphatic testimony to the high character and ability of Miss JANAU, and her strong qualifications for the post she is now seeking.

As a member of the Higher Education Committee of West Sussex, I have watched with much interest her work as Head of the Pupil Teachers' Centre and Preparatory Classes established here in Chichester, and have been much impressed—as I know other members of the Committee have been—by the results which have been achieved.

I can speak also from personal observation, and from experience of students who have come up from the Centre to the Training College, of the excellent quality of the work done under Miss JANAU's direction, and the splendid character of the girls who have been brought under her influence.

I am quite sure that Miss JANAU is a most thorough and capable Headmistress, and that her successful work in Chichester, combined with her former experience, and her great energy and force of character, will make her an ideal candidate for the post she is now seeking.

EDWIN HAMMONDS, M.A.,
Principal.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S VICARAGE,
CHICHESTER.

7th June, 1909.

Miss JANAU, Headmistress of the Chichester Pupil Teachers' Centre, tells me that she intends to apply for another post.

I have had considerable opportunity of observing Miss JANAU's work, having had two daughters under her charge, and being myself a lecturer at the Centre on Religious Subjects.

I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to Miss JANAU's ability, and also to her quiet power of control with the additional desirable faculty of exercising such control so as to gain and retain the affections of her pupils.

November 18th, 1908.

Miss JANAU tells me that she is standing for the Head Mistress-ship of the Haberdashers' Girls' School, and I have much pleasure in bearing further testimony to her powers. In addition to her specialist training, Miss JANAU has had the advantage of a very liberal general education; she is familiar with modern theories and methods in many subjects, and has made herself acquainted with the mental development of children of all ages. She is therefore well qualified to supervise the general work of a High School. Further, her many-sided educational experience, and the atmosphere in which she has spent her life, have given her a knowledge of the general field of education which it is not always in the power of Assistant Mistresses to acquire; and this, together with the thoughtful study which she has given to her profession, convinces me that any school entrusted to her would be a place of sound learning and intelligent mental training. Her distinct power of organization, together with her methodical attention to detail, would stand her in good stead as a Head Mistress, and she would, I am sure, do her utmost to advance physically, mentally and morally the interests of the girls committed to her charge. They would, I believe, go out into the world intelligent, practical women.

MARY HANBIDGE, M.A.,

Head Mistress.

CENTRAL FOUNDATION SCHOOL,

SPITAL SQUARE, E.

July 21st, 1909.

Miss JANAU, B.Sc., was appointed Senior Science Mistress in this School in September, 1900. In the curriculum of a Day Secondary school, working under the Board of Education, Science holds an important position, and five of our higher forms receive, on an average, four hours' instruction a week in Chemistry, Physics, and General Elementary Science. The work is carried on entirely in the laboratories, and is conducted on Heuristic lines. Miss JANAU has taken the upper division in each form. She has also supervised the work of the Second Science mistress, of the Science student mistress, and of the Science graduates, who are allowed to attend in the laboratories for Science training. I consider Miss JANAU one of the clearest and most stimulating teachers I have met. She is master of her subjects, and is familiar with the latest educational developments. She is excellent as an organizer and director. Her discipline is exceedingly good, and she has shown herself able to control a difficult type of girl with tact and firmness. She is a most conscientious worker, and will be a valuable addition to the staff of any school.

MARY HANBIDGE, M.A.,

Head Mistress.

[The Science graduates here referred to by Miss Hanbridge are not members of the Staff, but teachers from other schools desirous of learning the present methods of teaching Science. They follow, at the School, a course which consists of lectures given by me, attendance at my classes and, in some cases, teaching under my supervision.—A. L. J.]

TRAINING COLLEGE,

STOCKWELL ROAD, S. W.

May 24th, 1899.

It is with much pleasure that I can testify to the excellent work done by Miss JANAU since she became a member of the College staff last October twelve-month.

190DB

MISS JANAU is an exceptionally good Science Lecturer, extremely lucid, methodical and purposeful as a teacher, and possessed of wide and thorough knowledge of her subjects. She has made a special study of Physics, but she has taught our students various branches of Science with marked success. She has also done most useful work for us in arranging for the purchase of new apparatus for the Laboratory, with due regard to economy and efficiency.

I desire to further Miss JANAU's application for the Physics Lectureship in the London (Royal Free Hospital) School of Medicine for Women, by recommending her most strongly for the post; but I can only add that, should she be appointed, her loss as an able member of our staff would be much regretted in this College.

LYDIA MANLEY,

Principal.

December 8th, 1899.

It is with pleasure that I can testify to the excellence of the work done by Miss JANAU during the time that she has been a teacher in this College, a period of more than two years.

The subjects that she has chiefly taught here have been Human Physiology, Botany, various branches of Mathematics, and the course of Experimental Science required for the London Matriculation examination. Miss JANAU is a remarkably clear, interesting, and very capable lecturer, and she teaches from wide knowledge of her subjects. She had taken her degree in Science before entering on her work here, but she has always gone on indefatigably with study and research work, in which she takes a keen interest.

I may add that Miss JANAU has rendered valuable help in adding to the scientific apparatus of the College, and she has shown much skill, method, and business capacity in so doing.

LYDIA MANLEY,

Principal.

NORWICH AND ELY TRAINING COLLEGE,

NORWICH.

8th May, 1897.

Miss A. L. JANAU has nearly completed the period of a collegiate year on the staff of this College. As Science Mistress she has taught Botany, Physiography, and Sound, Light and Heat with great industry, zeal and ability. Her Majesty's Inspector of Training Colleges spoke in high terms of a lecture of Miss JANAU's at which he was present here some time ago. I confidently look forward to very excellent results in the approaching South Kensington Examinations.

Miss JANAU has also taught French and Arithmetic, and she has taken part with marked ability in the criticism of practising lessons of student teachers, showing a strong grasp of educational principles.

J. ADDISON HANNAH, M.A.

Scholar of Queen's College, Cambridge; late Chaplain,
Tutor and Lecturer of St. John's College, Battersea.*

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL,

WAKEFIELD.

April 7th, 1896.

Miss JANAU has taught in the above School for one year, and during that time I have found her work in every way satisfactory. She has taught chiefly Botany, Physics, Advanced Arithmetic, French, German, and some English, and has had to deal with classes of various ages and abilities.

In all her classes her teaching has been thorough, and she is well able to keep the attention and rouse the interest of the girls. Her Science work has been especially good, and she has spent much time in preparing experiments in Practical Physics, which have been of great use to her class in that subject.

From—The Hon'ble Mr. H. SHARP, C.I.E., M.A., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.

With reference to your letter no. 313-Mis., dated the 18th March 1915, I am directed to inquire whether the Governor in Council is prepared to recommend Miss A. L. Janau for employment in the Indian Educational Service.

No. 659-Mis., dated Ootacamund, the 17th June 1915.

From—The Hon'ble Diwan Bahadur P. Rajagopala Achariyar Avl., C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

With reference to your letter no. 713-Education, dated the 10th April 1915, I am directed to state that, though Miss A. L. Janau is probably eligible for employment in the Indian Educational Service so far as qualifications go, she is too old to commence a career in that service, as her age is now 42. I am to add that the question of employing her in this Presidency was considered some time ago, and the Governor in Council came to the conclusion that it would not be advisable to do so.

2. As regards the impropriety of her direct application to the Secretary of State, referred to in the papers forwarded with your no. 776, dated the 27th idem, I am to state that the applicant was advised by the Director to apply in the prescribed form through himself and the Madras Government but had apparently not understood the instructions.
