HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR'S TOUR, 1915.

Extract from an address to be presented to His Excellency the Governor by the Cuddapah District Board.

"8. Our indigenous arts of weaving and dyeing and other local industries are in a backward condition and our agriculture is in a state of stagnation, owing chiefly to the want of education and capital and enterprise due to the general poverty of the people. It is our sincere and earnest request to your Excellency to establish State-aided technical and industrial schools at Jammalamadugu and Pullampet, and agricultural farms in suitable centres so as to afford object lessons and facilities to the people to adopt improved methods."

Secretarial note.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Please see note on the address from the Muslim Educational Association, Kasaragod. (H)

The policy of the Government in regard to the opening of technical and industrial schools is to rely mainly on aided agency. If State-aided schools should be established in the district, the initiative should be taken by the District Board or some private body and then the Government may consider the question of helping them from Provincial funds.

G.O. 823, Educational, 14th July 1914. (L)

As regards weaving, however, the peripatetic weaving party for the northern districts, which was organized towards the close of last year to demonstrate improved methods of weaving, will in due course visit the Cuddapah district also. For dyeing, the Government have decided to establish classes in the Madura Technical Institute. Mr. Tressler has recently proposed that dyeing classes should also be opened in the Trade School to be established in Madras. If the latter is approved, pupils from Cuddapah can come to Madras for training.

Returned with the following extract from

His Excellency's reply:-

"I have already touched upon the question of State aided technical and industrial schools. I will only add here with reference to the weaving industry to which you specially refer that a special peripatetic agency for instruction in weaving was organised by Government last year and will in due course visit the Cuddapah district."
