THE MANAGER TALUQDAR PRESS,

Rakabganj,

FYZABAD.

To

THE The Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras, Madras.

Dated Fyzabad the 17th of July 1915.

I have the honor to send herewith copies of (1) Germany ki asli halat and (2) Germany ka bartao matahat mulkon ke sath, both in Urdu and Hindi, together with an English version of the latter for your kind perusal.

2 I beg to state that these two pamphlets are the best of the kind and have enlightened the public particularly the students, of these Provinces on the subject to a very great extent, and have formed a very true healthy and timely public opinion.

3 The U. P. as well as the Bengal Governments, have, with these considerations, ordered distribution of the pamphlets, in question, widely, as would appear from the copies of the enclosed Government orders and letter of the Director Public Instruction Bengal; other orders from the districts individually are expected very soon.

4 To serve the proprietor's eager desire that the pamphlet may reach both high and low the nominal price of Rs. 125/- per thousand has been charged to meet the expenses. (2 copies)

5 I beg therefore to approach you with the request that you will be pleased, in the very interest of your subjects, to lay this with its enclosures before His Excellency; and secure his orders for a very wide distribution of the two pamphlets in your Province.

6 An acknowledgement and an order are solicited.

I have the honor to be SIR,
Your most obedient servant,

Devi Prasad Singh
Manager.
