The file containing the telegram to the Secretary of State requesting him to recruit and send out as early as possible a lady Principal and a lady professor for the Women's college, Madras, and the Secretary of State's reply requesting this Govt. to make enquire about a lady ^(now in India) suited for the Principalship and report the result to him, is now with the D.P.G. It was sent to him u.o. on the 3rd August 1915 to make the enquire referred to above.

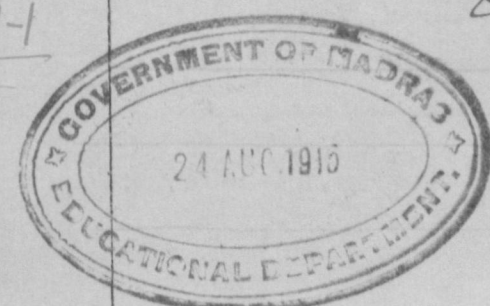

(File with the D.P.G.)

2. The present telegram from the Secretary of State about the lady professors may also be sent to the D.P.G. u.o. for information. There appears to be no help but to wait till the middle of October. Mr. Stone also ~~has~~ written to, to expedite the selection by the India office; ~~but to date no reply has been received.~~
