SUBJECT.

Re the remuneration to be given to Mr. J. H. Melville during his deputation under the East of Bengal.

Attention is solicited to the Secretary's note, dated the 12th August 1915 on p. 5 of notes with L.P. no. 519 Encl., dated the 14th August 1915. Submitted that it appears desirable to give Mr. Melville the usual deputation allowance of one-fifth of his salary. He has been granted this allowance for the period of his special duty in the Madras Presidency. It is for consideration whether he should be given anything more during the period of his deputation in Bengal. It is submitted that the D.I.D. may be consulted on the point before a definite answer is given to the Bengal Govt.

Will Financial please advise? I don't think there is any ground for giving more than the usual one-fifth salary and would be disposed to advise Bengal accordingly.
