Sir,

I have the honour to report that Mr. H.J. It is with sincere regret that I feel the necessity of informing you that I cannot attend to give instruction any longer at the Leather Trades School.

At this exceptionally busy time the Office and Tannery demand my whole time and energy, in fact I could do with several pairs of hands and legs.

The students are few in number and Mr. Kurup might well run them on for some time till other arrangements can be made. I would so much have liked to have continued, but it is, however, most difficult to attend efficiently to both and I regret very much being compelled to tender my resignation.
