Dated the 11th September 1916.

From

A. NEWMARCH, Esq.,
ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
Home(Educational) Department.

SIR,

With reference to para 6 of G.O.No.987 Educational dated the 9th September 1915 stating that the appointments of Sub Assistant Inspectresses are not included in the Subordinate Educational Service and that the appointments of Assistant Inspectresses are not included in the Provincial Educational Service, and that the ordinary rules regulating acting allowances should apply, I have the honour to state that prior to the receipt of the above G.O., these appointments had been treated by my office as belonging to the Subordinate Educational Services and the Provincial Educational Services respectively, and the acting allowances of the holders of these appointments had been regulated under Article 139 of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. The Deputy Auditor General when he inspected this office

office in August 1915 objected to this view and pointed out that there had been overpayments in the cases indicated below:-

(i) to Miss J. Patterson, First Assistant Inspectress of Schools while acting as Inspectress of Girls' Schools from 11th March 1910 to 6th December 1913 and again from 25th January 1915 to 30th April 1915

(ii) to Mrs. M. A. Srinivasa Second Assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools during the period she officiated as Inspectress and

(iii) to Miss Maud C. E. Karney on account of payment of acting allowance of Rs.50 per mensem from the 16th March to 30th September 1914, while she acted as Second Assistant Inspectress.

3. In Mr. Todhunter's letter No.988 Educational dated the 9th September 1915 it was intimated to the Government of India that the allowances overdrawn by the Assistant Inspectresses while acting as Inspectresses since 1908 had been waived by the Local Government under Article 279-A of the Civil Account Code.

4. In the case, however, of Miss Maud Karney, acting allowance at Rs.50 per mensem from the 16th March to the 30th September 1914 was admitted instead of at Rs.40/- resulting in an overpayment of Rs.65-2-6. As the Comptroller General has now made enquiries in regard to the regularisation of this overpayment,

I have the honour to ask for the orders of Government in the matter of its adjustment. As the increased rate was drawn by Miss Karney under a reasonable belief that she was entitled to it and the claim was admitted in audit in the same belief, I venture to suggest that Government might waive recovery of the overpayment in this case also under the provision of Article 279-A of the Civil Account Code.

5. In this connection I enclose a copy of the Comptroller General's letter No.712 A & 4/471-15 dated the 24th August 1916 conveying his decision in regard to the procedure to be adopted in the adjustments of erroneous payments admitted in audit for a for a considerable time in circumstances similar to those under reference.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. V. Srinivasa
Accountant-General.

N.C.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. T.M./23-~~36~~-13527, dated the 2nd October 1915, regarding the procedure that should be adopted when erroneous payments have been admitted in audit for a considerable time owing either to wrong interpretation of financial rules or to oversight, I have the honour to issue the following orders.

(b) When erroneous payments have been left unchallenged owing to oversight, the Audit Office should not of its own motion undertake a reaudit of bills paid more than six months previously, but should report the facts of the case to the Local Government for orders and a reaudit should be made only if so desired by the Local Government.
