As regards the fifth point of enquiry, viz: what facilities are given by the authorities to the conductors of unofficial law reports for prosecution of their enterprise, it is assumed that information is wanted as to the encouragement or patronage that is afforded to them. I venture, however, to suggest whether the enquiry may not be also with reference to the facilities afforded by the Courts in helping the conductors of the reports in getting copies of judgments &c. If so a reference to the High Court may be necessary. Otherwise the draft is fit for approval.
