Dear Sir

page 244
N. 845

In paragraph 7 of the PRELIMINARY NOTE ON THE SCORE OF ENQUIRY BY THE INDIAN INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION it is suggested that "Provincial Committees might compile lists of raw materials available locally and suitable for the establishment of new industries, and also lists of raw materials that might be imported as accessory material, or even as the principal raw material, with the same object". As a result of enquiries during his monsoon tour, Sir Thomas Holland now considers that it is impracticable for Provincial Committees to make anything like an adequate survey of the raw materials of a Province, and that they should not endeavour to do more than bring to the notice of the Commission the existence of raw materials regarding the development of which there is a clear case for further investigation.

Yours sincerely,

R O'Neill

Secretary, Industrial Commission.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Ootacamund.
