Statement of Pachigolla Rattanna of Ramanayadupeta dated 16th November 1915.

ac 3.90
The extent of ~~1.40~~ ^{3.90} cents now proposed to be taken up for the Noble College play ground is situated in the middle of my lands. As it happens that my cattle will be moving on three sides of the plot to be acquired, there arises a necessity for impounding my cattle. I therefore request that the required extent may be taken either on the East or West adjoining the Railway compound. Otherwise, my cattle cannot move about freely. My other land also will become unfit for any purpose. It will not also fetch proper price. I want compensation at the rate of Rs.1000 per acre, on whatever side the site is selected. I am not willing to part with the land required by them at any cost. Borra Venkata Chalapati is my natural son. He is 15 years of age. My mother Borra Mangayi adopted him. I gave this statement on his behalf. My mother sent me here as she is very aged and ill.

I am of Pachigolla Rattanna.
