Letter—from P. L. MOORE, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Judicial) Department.
Dated—Madras, the 20th September 1916.
No.—F.O.C. 275/Govt.

With reference to Home (Judicial) Department Memorandum No. 2161 A-1, dated the 6th September 1916, I have the honour to report that there are 250 Sub-Inspectors in the Police force in the Presidency who do not possess the minimum educational qualification prescribed in Police Order No. 58, Volume I. Of these 94 are directly recruited Sub-Inspectors, 151 head constables promoted to Sub-Inspector and 5 Sergeants promoted to Sub-Inspector.

Order—No. 1080, Home (Education), dated the 13th October 1916.

The Inspector-General of Police will be authorised to sanction exemption, from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Test Notification, of Sub-Inspectors desirous of appearing for the Criminal Judicial Test, lower grade, subject to the condition that the Inspector-General shall not permit a candidate to appear for the test more than three times.

2. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:—

NOTIFICATION

In note (8) to article 4 of the Special Test Notification published on pages 367 to 378 of Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 2nd May 1916, for the words "Criminal Judicial Test, higher grade", substitute the following:—

"Criminal Judicial Test, higher and lower grades".

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 1080, HOME (EDUCATION), DATED THE 13TH OCTOBER 1916.

[SUBJECT.—Delegation to the Inspector-General of Police of the power to permit unqualified Sub-Inspectors to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, lower grade.]

Extract from the notes to G.O. No. 784, Educational, dated the 18th July 1916.

2. It may be observed that, while the Inspector-General of Police is competent to sanction exemption from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Test Notification of Sub-Inspectors of Police desirous of appearing for the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher Grade, subject to the condition that the exemption granted by the Inspector-General shall not enable a candidate to appear more than three times for the test (vide G.O. No. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915), the Inspector-General of Police has not the power to permit Sub-Inspectors of Police to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, lower grade. This is however a matter for separate consideration in the Judicial Department in the first instance.

T.K.—15-7-16.

This should be considered separately.

P. RAJAGOPALA ACHARIYAR—17-7-16.

With reference to the Secretary's orders above it is submitted that in paragraph 3 of G.O. No. 1941, Judicial, dated the 18th August 1915, a pass in the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher Grade, was prescribed as a qualification for the post of Prosecuting Inspectors and advantage was taken of that opportunity to delegate the power at "A" above to the Inspector-General of Police—vide G.O. No. 1093, Educational, dated the 2nd October 1915.

2. The Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade, is a qualification for Police Inspectors (other than Reserve and Prosecuting Inspectors) and under note (4) to article 4 of the Special Test Notification "Sub-Inspectors and head constables of the City and District Police who have passed the examinations referred to in article 1 of the "Public Service Notification are eligible to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, "Lower Grade, provided that they produce in each case a certificate from the Commissioner of Police, Madras, or the Inspector-General of Police, as the case may be, "to the effect that they are deserving of this concession."

The Inspector-General has therefore been submitting for the orders of Government applications from Sub-Inspectors who do not possess the qualification specified in article 1 of the Public Service Notification.

3. It is anomalous that the Inspector-General of Police should not be competent to exercise the same power in regard to the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade, as he has in respect of the higher grade. The question whether this anomaly may not be removed by extending the powers of that officer to grant exemption to Sub-Inspectors who do not possess the qualification prescribed in article 1 of the Public Service Notification in regard to the lower grade also, may be remitted to Judicial for consideration in the first instance.

HOME (JUDICIAL) DEPARTMENT.

The proposal is that the Inspector-General of Police should be authorized to permit Sub-Inspectors of Police who do not possess the educational qualifications prescribed in article 1 of the Public Service Notification to appear for criminal lower, presumably not more than three times. Before considering the proposal Cf. G.O. 1093, Educational, 2nd October 1915, it is necessary to examine the existing orders relating to delegations till now made to the Inspector-General in the matter, who are at present eligible to appear for criminal lower and what are the minimum educational qualifications required for appointment as Sub-Inspectors.

The relevant orders are reproduced below for convenient reference :—

(1) Criminal higher and lower shall be open only to candidates who have passed the First Examination in Arts or the Intermediate Examination of the Madras University.

(2) The Inspector-General of Police is competent to sanction exemption from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Test Notification (see 1 above) of Sub-Inspectors desirous of appearing for criminal higher, provided the exemption granted by the Inspector-General shall not enable a candidate to appear more than three times for the test.

3 Sub-Inspectors and head constables of the City and District Police who have passed the examinations referred to in article 1 of the Public Service Notification are eligible to appear for criminal lower, provided they produce in each case a certificate from the Commissioner or the Inspector-General of Police, as the case may be, to the effect that they are deserving of this concession.

(4) Sub-Inspectors to be eligible for promotion to the rank of Inspectors should pass criminal lower.

Paragraph 3 of G.O. 1941, Judicial, 18th August 1915.

(5) All Prosecuting Police officers should pass criminal higher.

(6) The minimum educational qualification for appointment as Sub-Inspector is the possession of a completed Secondary School-Leaving Certificate.

If the proposal at B above is sanctioned it will be clear from the notes above that the Inspectors' cadre is liable to be filled up by men who do not possess a completed Secondary School-Leaving Certificate, which is the lowest of the educational qualifications prescribed in article 1 of the Public Service Notification, excluding, however, those mentioned in clause (5) of that article of which there is no information here. Under the existing rules, however, an Inspector of Police (other than Reserve and Prosecuting Inspectors) cannot but possess at least a completed Secondary School-Leaving Certificate with the exception, of course, of those men who have been specially exempted by Government from the provisions of article 1 of the Public Service Notification. It is, therefore, for consideration whether it is advisable to delegate the power to the Inspector-General as proposed at B above.

It would, however, appear unlikely that the number of Sub-Inspectors not possessing the educational qualifications prescribed in article 1 of the Public Service Notification who are likely to profit (by the proposed delegation) by standing a chance of promotion to the rank of Inspector will be very large; for, according to Police Order No. 57, Volume I, only a small proportion, not more than 15 per cent of the Sub-Inspectors' cadre, shall be filled by the promotion of head constables (who, it may be presumed, do not generally possess the qualifications prescribed in article 1 of the Public Service Notification) and even if the number of men who are permanently exempted by Government from the provisions of article 1 for appointment as Sub-Inspectors are included, the total number is not likely to be very large, for exemptions are, as a rule, granted by Government only in exceptional circumstances and out of necessity. If the proposed delegation to the Inspector-General also restricts the necessary educational qualifications who are likely to stand a chance for promotion to the rank of Inspector on account of the proposed delegation will still further be reduced.

The following table gives the number of exemptions applied for by the Inspector-General during the years 1914, 1915 and 1916 and the class of officers for whom exemptions were asked, together with their educational qualifications. The candidates were all permitted to appear for criminal lower, being exempted from the general educational qualifications prescribed in note (2) to article 4 of the Special Test notification.

4 NOTES to G.O. No. 1080, HOME (EDUCATIONAL), 13TH OCTOBER 1916

I do not think there is any great danger in delegating the power asked for to the Inspector-General provided that the number of times such candidates may appear for the test is limited to three. The danger of the Inspectorate being swamped by men of low qualifications in consequence of such a delegation is not a real one; the number of persons to whom exemptions have been granted in the past are few; nor does it follow that all persons who pass the test will be made Inspectors. Apart from a few unqualified European and Eurasians whose numbers are not known, the cadre of Sub-Inspectors does not probably contain as many as 15 per cent of men who have not obtained the minimum qualification, this 15 per cent being the proportion of Sub-Inspectors that may be recruited from the ranks. The suggestion is made that the Inspector-General may be empowered to permit unqualified men to enter for Criminal Lower as well as Criminal Higher, not necessarily, however, on the ground that the present practice is anomalous. The power to permit unqualified men to appear for higher was due to a special cause, viz., the need to obtain men who had passed Criminal Higher for the prosecuting staff. If anomaly were the only reason justifying this proposal, I do not think it would deserve much support; as a decentralising measure and one which has no discernible drawback, however, this department may, I submit, support.

E. A. HARVEY—21-9-16.

Since writing the above the Inspector-General in reply to a reference has stated that there are 250 Sub-Inspectors in the force who do not possess the minimum educational qualification prescribed in Police Order No. 53. Of these, 151 are head constables, which is slightly in excess of 10 per cent of the whole, the permissible limit being 15 per cent (vide Police Order No. 57). The rest are directly recruited Sub-Inspectors (94) and promoted Sergeants (5). Probably the directly promoted Sub-Inspectors are chiefly country-bred Europeans and Eurasians.
