SIR,

Adverting to G.O., No. 658 Edn. dated 15th September 1911 sanctioning the employment of a temporary extra assistant in the Government College, Mangalore, until the scheme for the establishment of the Model Secondary School in this Presidency is given effect to, I have the honour to enquire whether the scheme is likely to receive sanction at an early date or whether it has been given up practically for the time being. In the latter case, I request that further sanction for the continuance of the employment of the Temporary establishment may be accorded.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Accountant-General.
