Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr J. H. STONE, M.A., C.I.E., F.R.H.S., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home Department (Education).
Dated—Madras, the 20th September 1916.
No.—Cur. 7914.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to address the Secretary of State regarding the selection of two ladies in England in view to their appointment as Professors in the Madras College for Women.

2. In their Order No. 937, Educational, dated 4th instant, Government communicated to me the sanction of the Secretary of State for the creation of a lady professorship on a salary of Rs. 400 per mensem in the Indian Educational Service in the college mentioned above. The post is now being held as a tentative measure by Miss L. H. Phillips and it is very desirable that it should be filled by a lady of suitable qualifications recruited in England. Such a lady should, I consider, be a graduate with English training and with special qualifications in English, since she should be in charge of the English language and literature of the B.A. class primarily and be able to organize the teaching of the subject throughout the whole college.

3. The second vacancy will be caused by the resignation of Miss McCormick, Junior Professor of the college, who has notified her intention to relinquish her post by the middle of January next. The appointment which is also in the cadre of the Indian Educational Service carries with it a salary of Rs. 400—500, rising by annual increments of Rs. 20 a month. It is essential that the lady to be selected for this post in England should, besides being a graduate be thoroughly competent to lecture on Logic and allied subjects. She should also be prepared to take English work in the Intermediate and B.A. classes.

4. I further consider it desirable that the lady professors referred to supra should be able to provide between them instruction in French and Latin.

5. I beg to request that both the ladies may be selected in time to admit of their arrival in Madras by the middle of January next.

Order—No. 1094, Home (Education), dated 19th October 1916.

The Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India will be addressed.

To the Secretary to Government, Home Department (Educational).
Date—Madras, 20th September 1916.
No.—G.O. 1094.

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to address the Secretary of State regarding the selection of two ladies in England in view of their appointment as Professors in the Madras College for Women.
In their Order No. 937, Educational, dated 4th September 1916, the Secretary of State for the Education of India has directed that the sanction of the Secretary of State for the Education of India be obtained for the creation of a lady professorship on a salary of Rs. 400 per mensem in the Indian Educational Service in the college mentioned above. The post is now being held as a temporary measure by Miss L. H. Phillips and it is very desirable that it should be filled by a lady of suitable qualifications recruited in England. The second vacancy will be caused by the resignation of Miss McCormick, Junior Professor of the college, who has notified her intention to relinquish her post by the middle of January next. The appointment which is also in the course of the Indian Educational Service carries with it a salary of Rs. 400—500 rising by annual increments of Rs. 20 a year. It is essential that the lady to be selected for this post in England should, besides being a graduate, be thoroughly competent to lecture on logic and allied subjects. She should also be prepared to take English work in the intermediate and B.A. classes.
I further consider it desirable that the lady professor referred to above should be able to provide between them instruction in French and Latin.
I have to request that both the ladies may be selected in due season of their arrival in Madras by the middle of January next.
